序言 INTRODUCTION

What is the Asian Youth Music Camp?

The establishment of a regional Asian Youth Music Camp Association to serve as the basis of an on-going project for the development, interaction and co-existence of young people from the Austral-Asian region was an idea and the vision of Mr. Maslyn Williams, an Australian writer, who was very much involved with the music camp movement in Australia.

In April, 1976, while attending the inauguration of the National Arts Centre of the Philippines, Mr. Williams made a proposal to Madame Imelda Romualdez Marcos, First Lady of the Philippines, and to experts from various countries invited to the inauguration that youthful talents from the Asian region should be convened into a music camp in the Philippines. This proposal was enthusiastically received and the Inaugural Asian Youth Music Camp was held at Mount Makiling of the Philippines from 1st to 15th of May, 1977. To the first camp, Hong Kong sent five young musicians and one official.

Following the success in the Philippines, the 2nd Asian Youth Music Camp was held in Singapore in December 1978 and Hong Kong was represented by twelve young musicians and two officials. It was at this Camp that Hong Kong was invited to be host country of the 1979 Camp.

The 1979 Asian Youth Music Camp will be held at the Wu Kwai Sha Youth Village, Hong Kong, from 1st to 15th December. Over a hundred participants from Indonesia, Japan, Korea, Malaysia, the Philippines, Singapore, Thailand, Macau and Australia will come and join the best young players from Hong Kong to take part in the two-week residential music camp. At the Camp the 1979 Asian Youth Orchestra will be formed and the Orchestra will give four public concerts for Hong Kong audience. The young musicians will study under instructors coming from the Austral-Asian region as well as famous musicians from the United Kingdom and the United States of America.

The main goals of the music camp are music making and exchange of experiences among young people from different countries. Life in the music camp will be fun, pleasure as well as hard work.

At the Hong Kong Camp, two new targets have been set. First, work on the Constitution of the Asian Youth Music Camp Association, started in the Philippines and in Singapore, will be finalised by the representatives of the countries attending the Camp. Second, in addition to rehearsing classical and contemporary western music, the playing of ethnic music on ethnic instruments will be encouraged. In Hong Kong, the term "ethnic" refers to Chinese music and traditional Chinese instruments. It is therefore Hong Kong's pleasure to invite to the Camp the Singapore Youth Chinese Orchestra which will join the Hong Kong Youth Chinese Orchestra and eighteen other Hong Kong Chinese orchestras, choirs and dance groups in the rehearsal and performance of Chinese instrumental music, songs and dances.

亞洲青年音樂營是什麼？

亞洲青年音樂營始創人是澳洲作家威廉士先生。威廉士對青年音樂活動非常熱心，為澳洲國立音樂營協會委員。

一九七六年四月，威廉士先生應邀參加菲律賓國立藝術中心開幕典禮。他向菲律賓第一夫人艾美黛及其他應邀參加該次典禮的音樂及文化界先進提出舉辦亞洲音樂營的建議，得到各國代表熱烈支持。

第一屆亞洲青年音樂營隨即

於一九七七年五月在菲律賓的 MOUNT MAKILING 成功舉行。香港亦有五名青年樂手及一工作人員代表參加。亞洲青年音樂營目的在給予亞洲各國及澳洲的青年樂手一個交流音樂知識和互相切磋的機會，同時促進亞洲的青年音樂活動及使澳洲和亞洲人民能更緊密合作。

第二屆亞洲青年音樂營於一九七八年十二月在新加坡舉行。香港派出十二名青年樂手及兩名工作人員代表參加。

本屆亞洲青年音樂營由香港主辦，於本年十二月一日至十五日在中華基督教青年會烏溪沙青年新村舉行。將有十個地區（印尼、日本、韓國、馬來西亞、菲律賓、新加坡、泰國、澳門、澳洲及香港）百餘名代表參加。

來自上述各國的青年樂手將與香港的傑出青年音樂新秀在營中共渡兩星期，在澳洲及亞洲各國、英國及美國的著名音樂家指導下練習，組成一九七九年亞洲青年管絃樂團，為本港觀眾作四場公開表演，營中生活工作與娛樂並重，將為參加者帶來一個寶貴的學習與切磋機會。

本屆音樂營活動，將包括兩項創舉，其一是亞洲青年音樂營協會的會章，將會在營中議定，以使音樂營活動的延續，更趨穩健。其二是除練習西洋音樂作品外，本屆音樂營將加演亞洲音樂家的民族音樂作品。為此特別邀請得新加坡青年華樂團及十九隊本港中樂團（包括香港青年中樂團），合唱團及舞蹈團參加演出中樂作品多首，使音樂營更具地方色彩。

香港總督府

GOVERNMENT HOUSE
HONG KONG

I would like to welcome the young musicians and their leaders from Asia, Australia and New Zealand to the Third Asian Youth Music Camp. Hong Kong is honoured to host the camp and I am sure your music will bring as much happiness to yourselves as to your audiences in this city.

Music is an ideal link between people of different background and culture. The spirit of brotherhood created at this camp will, I am sure, give the participants a better understanding of the people and countries of Australasia. This understanding is important not only for the young musicians' future careers but in helping to bring about a peaceful and harmonious world community.

I wish all participants a successful and enjoyable Camp.

MESSAGE 獻辭

FROM THE SECRETARY FOR HOME AFFAIRS

The music programme prepared at the 1979 Asian Youth Music Camp includes works by Asian, Australian and Western composers. This blend is representative of the rich cultural heritage of the Australasian region. I am glad that participants at the Camp will have the opportunity of attending performances given by Hongkong artists and I am sure they will depart with happy memories of their two-week stay in this city.

音樂事務統籌處簡介

MUSIC ADMINISTRATOR'S OFFICE

A new generation of performers and audiences for Hong Kong

The Music Administrator's Office was established in October, 1977 with three objectives: to run an instrumental music training programme; to promote interest in music, especially among the young; and to encourage and assist in the organising of music activities at all districts. In gist, the Office is preparing the audience and the performers for the 1980s, the 1990s and the 21st century

The Office now runs nine youth orchestras: two youth symphony orchestras, three youth symphonic bands and four youth Chinese orchestras. In addition, 2,500 students are taking weekly lessons, playing different Chinese and Western instruments. Courses for aural training, theory and music appreciation are also run at the four music centres of the Office. Next year, the number of trainees will be doubled. By then there will be training classes in every district of the territory. For talented young musicians, special training is provided at both local and overseas training centres. The Office also offers scholarship for advanced students.

Besides instrumental music training, the Office has organised six choirs in Sham Shui Po, Sai Kung, Kwai Chung, Mong Kok, Sha Tin and Chai Wan. More children and youth choirs will be organised in the coming months.

Music for the Millions

Another major activity of the Office is the "Music for the Millions" concert programme. The purpose of this programme is to introduce music to new audiences.

A total of 587 "Music for the Millions" concerts have so far been organised for 377,500 people. These concerts are given by youth orchestras, bands and ensembles and they are held in schools, parks, playgrounds, community halls and factories.

To broaden the outlook and experience of young musicians in Hong Kong, overseas musicians passing through Hong Kong are invited to run master classes and seminars. Up to mid-November, 1979 a total of 92 master classes and seminars have been held for over 3,600 students and music lovers. Musicians who have taken part as tutors in master classes include Eudice Shapiro, CHIU Sin-tung, Jonathan Williams, Christian Ferras, LIM Kek-beng, Bela Siki, FOU T'song, Susan Starr, Richard Markson and many others.

International music exchange programmes

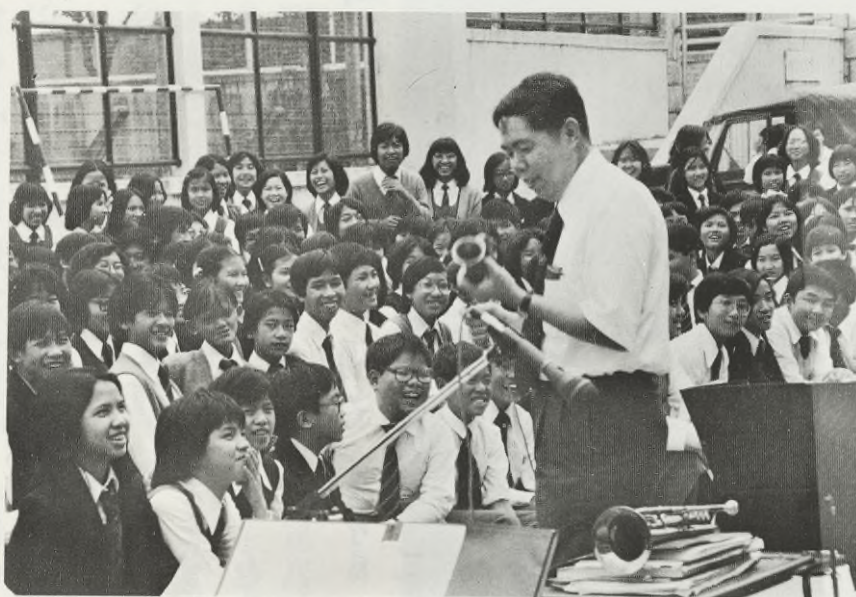

The Office also organises international music exchange programmes. The County of Avon Schools Orchestra from the United Kingdom visited Hong Kong at the end of July, 1978. Four public concerts were given for an audience of over 11,000. The Hong Kong Youth Symphony Orchestra and Youth Chinese Orchestra paid a return visit to Avon in August, 1979.

In November, 1978 the Nakamura Gakuen Girls High School Band from Japan was invited to be the guest band at the First Hong Kong Youth Symphonic Band Festival jointly organised by the Music Administrator's Office and the Tom Lee Music Foundation.

Three joint performances with 12 local bands were given for an audience of over 15,000 people. In May, 1979 the Philippines Youth Orchestra visited Hongkong. Two public concerts were given for an audience of 2,700 people. In June, the Australian Youth Orchestra came to Hong Kong and gave one performance for an audience of 1,300 people.

The Second Hong Kong Youth Symphonic Band Festival was held in November, 1979. Two guest bands came: one from Singapore and the other from the Philippines. They joined 23 Hong Kong bands and gave 5 public concerts for an audience of 18,000.

香港新一代的演奏者及觀眾

音樂事務統籌處於一九七七年十月成立，宗旨有三：安排全港性器樂訓練計劃，提高社會人士（特別是青年人）對音樂的興趣及鼓勵和協助各區舉辦音樂活動。總括來說，統籌處旨在培植新一代的演奏者及觀眾。

統籌處現已成立九個樂團，包括兩個青年交響樂團、三個青年管樂團及四個青年中樂團。另外開設中西器樂訓練班，訓練二千五百名中小學生。視聽訓練、音樂理論及音樂欣賞會等各類活

動，亦經常在四個訓練中心舉行。明年，訓練總人數將倍增至五千名，到時全港九新界都會有器樂訓練班。對賦天才的青年音樂家，統籌處在香港或海外多處為他們安排適當的訓練，並設有獎學金。

除器樂訓練外，統籌處並積極推行合唱團訓練。現時已有六個合唱團，分別在深水埗、西貢、葵涌、旺角、沙田及柴灣成立。統籌處更計劃在未來數月間成立多個兒童及青少年合唱團。

「樂韻播萬千」

「樂韻播萬千」音樂會是統籌處另一項重要活動，主要目的是向觀眾介紹音樂。統籌處安排不同中西樂隊到各區的學校、公園、遊樂場、社區會堂及工廠演奏。迄今，共舉辦了五百八十七個「樂韻播萬千」音樂會，供有377,500名觀眾欣賞。

為使本港青年音樂家有機會增進見識和經驗，統籌處經常邀請訪港各國音樂家主持指導班和研討會。至今年十一月中，統籌處已為本港三千六百餘名青年樂手安排了九十二個指導班及研討會。受邀請的音樂家包括沙比露、趙善同、威廉士、花利士、林克明、絲琪、傅聰、蘇珊絲特雅、馬克慎及其他著名音樂家。

國際青年音樂交流

為推廣國際青年音樂交流及使本港青年有機會欣賞外國青年樂手的演奏，統籌處安排連串的音樂交流活動。去年七月，雅幌郡青年管絃樂團由英國專程來港，與本港青年樂團及合唱團合奏四場音樂會，聽眾人數達一萬一千人。香港青年交響樂團及青年中樂團於本年八月赴英演出，亦會回訪雅幌郡。

去年十一月，一隊日本著名女子管樂團，應邀參加由統籌處及通利音樂基金聯合主辦之「第一屆香港青年管樂節」，並與本港十二隊管樂隊聯合演出三場音樂會，聽眾人數達一萬五千人。本年五月，菲律賓青年交響樂團應邀到港，與香港青年交響樂團及青年管樂團聯合演出兩場，聽眾人數達二千七百名。在六月，澳洲青年交響樂團到港演出，聽眾達一千三百名。

本年十一月，二隊管樂隊從新加坡及菲律賓來港參加「第二屆香港青年管樂節」，與二十三隊本港管樂團聯合演出五場音樂會，觀眾達一萬八千人。

市政局 THE URBAN COUNCIL

The Urban Council: Cultural Programmes and Facilities

A fundamental task of the Urban Council is the provision of programmes that enrich the cultural life of Hong Kong.

The Council directly sponsors two major arts festivals annually: The Festival of Asian Arts, the International Film Festival and makes financial contribution to the annual Hong Kong Arts Festival. In addition, the Council has established the professional Chinese Orchestra and Repertory Theatre. It also operates the Hong Kong Museum of Arts, the Hong Kong Museum of History, and will soon open the Hong Kong Space Museum.

Directly and indirectly the Council supports local talent and brings overseas artists to local audiences in a programme of performances at over 80 indoor and outdoor locations, including parks and playgrounds, schools, libraries, and civic association halls in every district of Hong Kong. Finally it fully or partially sponsors over 600 performance events at three City Hall stages annually.

CITY HALL

The City Hall is the major cultural centre of Hong Kong. It is in fact a complex that houses three performance venues (a concert hall, a theatre and a recital hall), the Hong Kong Museum of Arts, two public exhibition galleries and the cultural public library. During the year 1978-79 over 300,000 people attended 685 Urban Council presentations of concerts, puppet shows, recitals, operas, films, dramas, lectures and dance at the Concert Hall, Theatre and Recital Hall.

Among the many internationally renowned artists who appeared under the auspices of the Urban Council in 1978-79 were pianists Fou T'song, Gyorg Sandor, Nancy Loo; cellists Pierre Fournier, Martin Sieghart, Jonathan Williams; violinists Theo

Olof, Jack Glatzer, Christian Ferras; guitarists Julian Byzantine, Alice Artzt; the Stuttgart Ballet, The Dublin Festival Theatre, the Cleveland Orchestra, the Israel Philharmonic Orchestra, the Mozarteum Orchestra of Salzburg and NDR Orchestra of Hamburg.

Besides regular monthly performances by its own Chinese Orchestra and Repertory Theatre, the Council helps to underwrite a regular performance schedule by the Hong Kong Philharmonic Orchestra. It also co-sponsors periodic chamber music and solo recitals by guest musicians playing with either of the two orchestras, or by section leaders and individual musicians from their ranks performing separately.

OUTDOOR VENUES

Apart from bringing as much local, regional and international talent to Hong Kong stages as is possible, the Council cultural goals include assuring every district of Hong Kong a stage of its own and entertainments with which to fill it — usually free.

There are over 80 performance sites throughout Hong Kong now in use. But the best index of Council district activities is recorded in its free outdoor performance programmes. In what must be one of the world's more ambitious efforts, 827 individual performances and fetes were offered in the year 1978/79. These were attended by over 800,000 people and included variety shows, Chinese operas, puppet theatre, pop concerts, fun fairs, children's parties, youth dances, and film presentations.

CULTURAL COMPLEX

Tsim Sha Tsui Cultural Complex, near the Star Ferry Wharf in Kowloon, is a new multi-purpose structure scheduled for completion in the early 1980s. The Complex will include a 2300-seat Concert Hall, a 2200-seat Lyric Theatre and a 500-seat Studio Theatre which, with present City Hall venues, will almost triple the existing seating capacity for performances in Hong Kong. The new centre will also house the Space Museum, and the Museum of Arts will be relocated to separate buildings on the premises. Once completed, the new facility will make Hong Kong's physical facilities for housing cultural events in par with any in Asia.

基本服務

市政局的基本服務之一，是提供各類文娛節目，以充實市民的文化生活。

市政局每年主辦兩個規模龐大的藝術節：亞洲藝術節及國際電影節。又贊助每年一度的香港藝術節。此外，市政局並創辦了職業化的香港中樂團及香港話劇團，而香港藝術館、香港博物館及即將落成啓用的太空館，都是市政局轄下的機構。

市政局主辦或聯合贊助本港俊彥及海外藝術家在八十多處戶外或戶外地方演出，包括公園、遊樂場、學校、圖書館及各社區會堂等。每年在大會堂演出的節目達六百多項。

大會堂是本港文藝薈萃的中心，內設有三處表演文娛節目的場地（音樂廳、劇院和演奏廳）、香港藝術館，兩所展覽廳及公立圖書館。

一九七八至七九年度，即有三十多萬的觀眾到大會堂欣賞市政局所主辦的各類節目，包括音樂會、木偶戲、獨奏會、歌劇、電影、戲劇、講座及舞蹈等，凡六百八十五項之多。

一九七八至七九年度，由市政局邀請來港演出的國際知名藝術家計有：鋼琴家傅聰、喬治、桑達、羅乃新，大提琴家彼埃、福尼爾、馬田、薛夏德、莊納丹、威廉斯；小提琴家菲奧、柯度

夫、積基薩、基士丁、賈拉斯；結他手朱利安、畢先達、愛麗、雅芝，此外，尚有史圖加芭蕾舞團、都柏林劇團、克里夫蘭管弦樂團、以色列管弦樂團、莎爾茲堡莫扎特管弦樂團及漢堡NDR交響樂團。各國領事館及文化團體亦有參與其事，協辦部份藝術家來港獻藝。

市政局轄下的香港中樂團及話劇團每月均作定期演出。此外，市政局亦贊助香港管弦樂團的定期演出，並經常舉辦室樂演奏會及獨奏會，由應邀來港的音樂家與兩大樂團之一演奏，或由樂團音部的首席樂手與團員分別演奏。

戶外文娛節目

市政局除儘量贊助本港、亞

洲及國際藝壇精英在港演出外，並致力普及文藝，務使本港每一區域均有提供文娛活動的場所，而表演通常是免費的。

目前可作為戶外演出的場地達八十多處，一九七八至七九年度內演出的戶外節目達八百二十七項，規模之大較諸世界任何一國，不遑多讓，觀眾者逾八十萬人。節目多姿多采，包括綜合性節目、粵劇、木偶戲、流行音樂會、遊藝會、兒童聯歡會、青年舞會及電影欣賞等。去年的亞洲藝術節，市民不但踴躍購票參觀（平均銷票，達百分之九十八），並有七萬五千多人，欣賞二十六項在戶外場地演出的免費節目，各外來藝術團體均有參加演出。

文娛館

尖沙咀文娛館位於九龍火車站舊址，是一所設備完善能作多種用途的文娛中心，擬在一九八〇年代落成。文娛館設有一個二千三百座位的音樂廳，一個二千二百座位的歌劇院和一個五百座位的小型劇場。這樣一來連同現有大會堂計算在內，座位數量將比現時增多三倍。文娛館裏亦建有太空館，而香港藝術館亦會遷移到該處，文娛館全部落成啓用後，香港的文娛設備足以與亞洲任何文化中心媲美。

賀詞 MESSAGE

“Great music harmonizes with the Universe”—this is a common belief of Chinese philosophers. Music is the best communication medium among the races.

During the coming two weeks, all the young musicians from the Austral-Asian region will work and study together; this will not only improve the musicianship of each participant but also help to develop mutual understanding and friendship. With the development of this type of activities, we can foresee a brightful future in the music world of Austral-Asia.

During the music camp, various compositions from all over the world will be performed. In particular, some of the best compositions by Asian composers will also be played. On this point, the Asian Youth Music Camp is sharing the same goal with the Asian Composers' League, and this is something we are pleased and proud of.

Therefore, on behalf of the Asian Composers' League, I wish to send the best wishes and most sincere congratulations to all the participants and organisers of the 1979 Asian Youth Music Camp.

「大樂與天地同和」，這是中國哲人所說的名言。因為音樂不但使人心靈和諧而且可與天地和諧。

由於兩週來各位導師及青年的共同研究與切磋，不但在音樂的學習上有一定的進展，同時在更加深了我們的友誼與互相了解，由於這一個共同信念，我們必能親切地合作，共同創造明日和平的亞洲，使音樂園地更豐盛。

此次大會所演奏的樂曲，除了西洋音樂以外，同時也演奏亞洲作曲家的作品。這一點，與多年來「亞洲作曲家同盟」要努力的目的相同，值得我們慶幸和驕傲。

本人謹代表「亞洲作曲家同盟」，向亞洲青年音樂營作最衷心的祝賀及敬禮。

PROGRAMME NOTES

OVERTURE IN D MINOR

George Frederic Handel
(1685-1759)

(arranged by Edward Elgar)

In 1718, Handel joined the crowd of artists and intellectuals working at Cannons, the magnificent estate of James Brydges, Duke of Chandos. A visitor recorded that "the Chapel (of Cannons) hath... a Choir of Vocal and Instrumental Musick, and when his Grace goes to Church, he is attended by his Swiss Guards; his Musick also play when he is at Table." And some of that princely music was by Handel himself, including eleven anthems known now as the Chandos Anthems. The second, "In the Lord Put I My Trust", uses a text drawn from Psalms 9, 11, 12 and 13.

The stately Overture which opens the anthem attracted the attention of Edward Elgar, composer-in-residence to Victorian England. Caught by the nobility and grandeur of Handel's music in general (echoes of the oratorios and operas abound in Elgar's works; "Dove son" and "Pomp and Circumstance" have much in common), and of this overture in particular, Elgar used his prodigious orchestral talents to clothe the Baroque original in a sumptuous, sonorous evening dress.

TAI PING SHAN PANORAMA

Doming Lam
(Born 1935)

Born in Macau, Doming Lam had his conservatory training in Toronto, going on the advanced work at the University of Southern California. Since returning to Hong Kong in 1964, he has been one of the city's most active composers and promoters of new music; his "Thanksgiving to Joe-Kwan", commissioned by RTHK, was selected for the 1979 International Rostrum of Composers, held in Paris in May this year.

One of Lam's preoccupations has been the integration of Chinese and Western musical procedures; his works are dramatic and colourful, displaying an extraordinary keenness of orchestration. "Tai Ping Shan Panorama" was written especially for the Music Administrator's Office in Hong Kong.

FANTASIA

Young Jin Kim
(Born 1930)

Kim, born in Taejon, Korea, attended Seoul National University where he obtained his Bachelor's and Master's Degrees in music. He then went to the U.S. for four years of advanced work, in New York and Illinois. He is currently an associate professor at Seoul National University.

Among his major works are a Brahmic Ode, (for 4 groups of strings and percussion); and "Yo Eum", for orchestra. Kim's works are complex in construction, though, like many Korean composers, he occasionally utilizes sounds in a purely sensual way recalling the Western avant-garde.

SUN MUSIC III

Peter Sculthorpe
(Born 1929)

Born 50 years ago, Sculthorpe studied at the University of Melbourne and Oxford; among his teachers were Edmund Rubbra and Egon Wellesz. Since 1963, he has taught at the University of Sydney.

Sculthorpe is one of the most arresting voices from a country which has only recently emerged as a major musical power. He himself claims little interest in European music, preferring to concentrate on Australian material. He also believes that Asian music principles can revitalize the creative world of the West. "Sun Music" demonstrates this in several ways, notably in its basic principles. Sculthorpe has tried to create a piece of music whose main structural element is pure sound, in a sensual way, rather than themes and developments in a traditional Western, post-Beethoven manner. To achieve this he provides, as he himself says,

A new repertoire of instrumental resources — microtonal and semi-tonal clusters on strings and brass, slow string glissandi, slowly shifting brass chords of changing accents and dynamics, a dense shimmering string chord of 59 adjacent quarter-tones, . . . to create music of a static, incantatory, almost frighteningly inhuman kind. It is a music of harsh colours, of a brilliant light which glistens and blazes, music which perhaps could only come out of a country in which heat — not cold — is the enemy element.

"Sun Music" is scored for an orchestra of modest size, but with a vastly expanded percussion division, which includes traditional instruments but also a variety of Asian and exotic sound-sources as well.

"ESPANA" RHAPSODY

Emmanuel Chabrier
(1841-1894)

Originally trained as a law clerk, Chabrier spent 18 long years at the Ministry of the Interior in Paris. In his spare time, however, he moved among artists and musicians such as Claude Manet, Renoir, Verlaine, and Faure. When he was 40, he visited Bayreuth, and the operas of Wagner made such an impression on him that he resolved to leave his job and commit himself to the life of a professional composer. He was only to live 13 years longer, but in that brief time he created a body of distinctly original and striking music.

His first "professional" works were piano pieces — natural enough, as he was nearly of virtuoso standard himself. But a visit to Spain stimulated his imagination (as hundreds of witty letters from him to his friends testify) and he summed up his recollections in this Rhapsody.

It is based on actual Spanish dance themes, from Seville, Granada, and the Alhambra. One of the most attention-getting, though — the jolly trombone theme which appears at the end — is pure Chabrier.

PHILIPPINE SCENES

Lucrecia Kasilag

One of the most active and admired figures of music in the Philippines, Lucrecia Kasilag is president of the Cultural Center of the Philippines and works with numerous government and professional bodies associated with music and the arts. Trained in the Philippines and at the Eastman School of Music, she has written more than 200 compositions, ranging from folk-song settings and art songs to choral, chamber and orchestral works.

Lucrecia Kasilag has long pioneered in the research of, and utilisation of, Asian musical instruments side-by-side with orthodox Western instruments, resulting in numerous compositions with an East-West blend.

"Philippine Scenes", composed in 1974, quotes themes from three separate regions of the Philippines — Luzon, Visayas, and Mindanao. The first movement, "Mountainside," is rhapsodic and pastoral in character, building upon a plaintive flute solo. The following "Lullaby" is a quiet, languid song, while the final "Festival" is a picture of a village celebration, a fiesta of folk rhythms, native instruments and shouting by the musicians (both those in the village and those on-stage!)

DANCE OF THE DOLL

Law Wing-Fai
(Born 1949)

Born in Hong Kong, Law Wing-Fai studied composition with Hsu Tsang-Houei at the Taiwan National University. On his return to Hong Kong, he worked in music education for several years, and served as tutor in classical guitar at the Chinese University. In 1977, he went to America, working with John Crowford at the University of California, which awarded him a Master's Degree in Music for his work in composition.

Hong Kong first became aware of Law Wing-Fai's talents with his composition for pi-pa, "Silkworm", written in 1972. The work was a strikingly original combination of traditional and innovative techniques, organized in a system of free tonality. Another of his works, "Mulberry Grove Dance," for flute and guitar, was selected to be sent to the International Rostrum of Composers, held under the auspices of the International Music Council in Paris earlier this year.

His most recent compositions, such as "Seu-Chu-Kou" (1978) and the "String Quartet" (1978), as well as the orchestral piece "Chien" (1978), are attempts to use atonal techniques in the service of Chinese aesthetics. "Dance of the Doll" was written especially for the Music Administrators Office in Hong Kong.

DOUBLE-BASS CONCERTO IN A MINOR

Domenico Dragonetti

The "Paganini of the double-bass," Dragonetti was born in Venice, where, while still in his teens, he joined the musical establishment at St. Mark's Cathedral. He was a prodigious composer as well as performer, turning out sonatas, concertos and capriccios by the dozen. His reputation spread outside of Italy, and he eventually accepted a post in London, where he died. During his travels across Europe, he came to know and befriend many of the great composers of the day; he and Haydn were close friends, and he knew Beethoven well also.

His personal life was a colourful one; he kept, for example, a huge collection of dolls, some of which accompanied him to concerts. His dog Carlo also went along, and would sit beside him in the orchestra pit. His collection of snuff-boxes was also remarkable, filling an entire gallery.

Dragonetti left hundreds of compositions for double-bass, many of them still in manuscript in the British Museum. There is, for example, a curious arrangement of the pedal parts for Bach's organ fugues. Tonight's concerto, on the other hand, is a more traditional work, frequently performed — whenever a bass-player of sufficiently accurate agility can be found to undertake it!

CONCERTO FOR DOUBLE STRING ORCHESTRA

Michael Tippett
(Born 1905)

Acknowledged as one of Britain's most intelligent and individual musicians, Tippett is a slow and meticulous writer whose output is dwarfed beside that of composers such as Britten. Still there are several large works — three operas and an oratorio — as well as three symphonies and a handful of orchestral, choral and chamber works.

Tippett was born in London, but spent most of his life in the country. A confirmed pacifist, he spent three months in jail for his beliefs when war broke out in the 1930's. Later, he was appointed Music Director at Morley College, succeeding Gustav Holst. There Tippett organized concerts which became famous throughout London for their quality and diversity.

At the same time he completed tonight's Concerto, one of his best-known works. It calls for two groups of string players, giving the composer opportunities for rhythmic and echo effects between the two. The warm tone of the strings seems to have stimulated Tippett's lyrical creativity, especially in the third movement finale. There, amid much rhythmic complexity, a luscious tune resembling a Negro spiritual wells up in the bass, leading the entire work to a powerful conclusion.

OVERTURE "1812"

Peter I. Tchaikovsky

Tchaikovsky is in the odd position of being appreciated too much and too little — too much, perhaps, by the musical novice, who finds in him even greater satisfaction than in Beethoven; too little, perhaps, by the trained musical analysts, who may magnify his faults until they overshadow his genius. The truth is probably somewhere in between the two, with leanings towards the novice's side; there are moments in his music which it would be impossible to find elsewhere, pages in which he expresses elemental passions with a simple directness that all can appreciate. His music, personal and powerful, has been an emotional experience for masses of music-lovers because he knew how to speak simply and honestly. Millions have been touched by the pessimism of the final symphonies, the yearnings of Romeo and Juliet, the sweetness of the A minor trio, the enchantment of the "Nutcracker". It has been pointed out that he sometimes lacked the power to develop ideas symphonically, choosing instead an episodic form. But if there are composers more profound, more cerebral, there are also few who have equalled the poignancy of his self-expression. Tchaikovsky's heart is in his music, and those who approach it with their hearts rather than their brains alone will find much there for themselves.

The "1812" Overture was written by Tchaikovsky in 1880 for a large, outdoor ceremony — something like the "Symphonie Funebre et Triomphale" of Berlioz, also in tonight's programme. A large church was to be consecrated in Moscow, and for the occasion Tchaikovsky conceived a fantasia which could be played in the public square outside, with orchestra, brass, and even cannon. He decided to glorify the year 1812, the year of Napoleon's defeat in Russia, since the church had been built as a memorial to the Russian victory. The opening, accordingly, uses a Russian hymn, "God, Save Thy People;" then follows a musical depiction of the Battle of Borodino, where we hear the Russian national anthem and the French Marseillaise locked in combat representing the warring soldiers. Finally the Russian anthem emerges in a brilliant display of musical pyrotechnics, festive fireworks of the highest order.

SYMPHONIE FUNEBRE ET TRIOMPHALE

Hector Berlioz
(1803-1869)

Berlioz is best known for his dramatic, dazzling orchestral showpieces — works such as the "Roman Carnival" Overture or the brilliant "Symphonie Fantastique." He was also a visionary innovator in form, experimenting with various combinations of chorus and orchestra throughout his life; apparently dissatisfied with instruments alone, he turned to soloists and ensembles for additional expressive power, as in his dramatic cantata "Romeo and Juliet."

The Symphonie Funebre et

Triomphale is, in some ways, a step back in style. It was commissioned by the French Minister of the Interior to celebrate the tenth anniversary of the 1830 Revolution. Originally scored for large military band, it was designed to accompany a large-scale, outdoor ceremony; a huge procession was to march through the streets to the Place de la Bastille, where a service honouring those killed in the fighting would be held. The first movement, the Funeral March, was played over and over as the 200 musicians, led by Berlioz (in uniform), headed the parade. The second movement, the Funeral Oration, accompanied the blessing of the clergy; and the finale was to celebrate the triumphs of the Revolution.

Berlioz had long wanted to write a piece of music for such an occasion. There was a whole tradition in France of outdoor spectacles of this sort, dating back to the 1789 Revolution and efforts of the new government to unite the people through impressive rallies. Berlioz had probably heard revolution-inspired compositions of Gossec and Mehul when he was growing up; and recollections of their work must have urged his composing pen, as he claimed that composition of this Symphonie took him only 40 hours! Still, it is an imposing achievement; rarely heard because of its size (it calls for a minimum of 107 players), the Symphonie has an eerie hypnotic quality from the pervasive sound of the high clarinets and side-drums. The Funeral March is one of the supreme tests of a conductor's skill; he must keep it moving but also sustain an impression of solemnity and breadth. The Funeral Oration exploits an expressive trombone solo; and the finale (ruined at the premiere in Paris because of some mis-timed maneuvers of the soldiers) ends the work in a blaze of glory.

TWO MOVEMENTS FOR STRINGS Kok-Ichi Hattori (Born 1933)

After training in Japan, Hattori went on to Michigan State University in America and the Hochschule für Musik in Berlin. He is widely-known in Japan as a composer, writer and producer of music education television programmes. He has also travelled extensively outside Japan, lecturing in Russia, America, the Philippines, and South America. Hattori is also in demand as a conductor, leading his own works and other contemporary compositions in Japan and overseas. The Two Movements for Strings, composed in 1977, are among numerous works Hattori has written for school orchestras and bands.

PRIME OF LIFE

WONG YUK-YEE

Wong Yuk-yee began his music studies in Hong Kong. To widen his horizon in the field of music, he attended the National Music Academy in Hamburg, West Germany in 1960 and majored in composition. He returned to Hong Kong in 1968 and is now faculty member of the Hong Kong Conservatory of Music, the Fine Arts Department of the Hong Kong Baptist College and the Extra-Mural Department of the University of Hong Kong.

PRIME OF LIFE is written in commemoration of the 1979 Asian Youth Music Camp. The bright and energetic subjects portray the warmth and vitality of the young. Different scales and modes are used to present Hong Kong as a meeting point of the East and the West and to describe the new challenges ahead and the bright hopes for the future.

VIOLIN CONCERTO IN A MINOR, BWV 1041

Johann Sebastian Bach (1685-1750)

(Allegro)
Andante
Allegro assai

One of the happiest periods of Bach's life was the time he spent at the court of Anhalt-Cothen, from 1717 to 1723. There Bach was in the service of music-loving Prince Leopold, who employed 18 musicians in his residence. Officially, Bach was supposed to act as Kapellmeister, of director of music in the royal chapel; in fact, there was no elaborate musical programme for the chapel, and Bach's duties centred mainly on the secular music, official and not-so-official, which formed so important a part of court life. The Prince maintained an excellent chamber orchestra (apparently the inspiration for the Brandenburg Concertos) and he himself played in concerts. Bach and the Prince became close friends; the latter stood as godfather to Bach's first son, and it was with great sadness that Bach returned, years later, to conduct the funeral cantata when the Prince suddenly died.

The two Bach violin concertos were designed for performance at this court, by its relatively small orchestra. The solo part—practically the earliest surviving solo violin concerto in music history—is not quite as brilliant and extroverted as those of the Vivaldi concertos, for example. Instead, Bach was writing for his musically-sophisticated employer, and strove to create a sober and musically substantial work, worthy of the Prince. Still, dance rhythms sneak into the piece, spurring its melodies skyward, and urging its harmonies to blossom with a richness in which Bach has no equal.

The opening movement has no tempo marking in the original manuscript, but by tradition it would be an allegro, with a lively orchestral ritornello which returns to subdivide the movement and round it off at the end. The slow movement, like those of many concertos by Bach, is built over a semi-ostinato figure in the bass, which returns over and over; over this are suspended, like melodic catenaries, the lyric swoops of the solo part. The finale, using a ritornello again, seems to go on without breathing, in a sort of spiritual gigue.

VIOLIN CONCERTO IN D, OP. 61

Ludwig van Beethoven (1770-1827)

Allegro ma non troppo

Larghetto

Rondo

Beethoven composed a fairly large number of concertos, mostly for the piano, his own instrument. Yet he left only one violin concerto, almost as though, in this single work, he had said about all he intended to say on the subject. And he may well have been right; compared to all earlier concertos, this one is a giant, an epic work dwarfing all previous examples. The concerto was the product of a rather unusually happy period in Beethoven's life. He was surrounded by friends, his love life was on an even course, and a succession of masterpieces—including the Fourth Piano Concerto and Fourth Symphony—testify to his good spirits in 1806, the year of composition of the Violin Concerto. And another measure of its good naturedness is its dedication; Beethoven chose to inscribe it to Stephan von Breuning, whose mother had taken Beethoven in as a child. Ludwig and Stephan became, and remained, lifelong friends, collaborating on Fidelio and other works. In all his life, perhaps, Beethoven had no finer friends, and it is only right that he should be thus remembered.

The actual violinist for whom the Concerto was written, however, did not treat it with such respect. Franz Clement, only 26, was the conductor/leader of the Theater an der Wien, where numerous works of Beethoven had their premieres. The Concerto was barely completed in time for the first performance; the ink was still wet, apparently, and moreover the part was laid out on four staves—for easier revision. Revision may have been aided, but Clement's sight-reading was not; apparently the premiere was a bit of a disaster. This was not helped by Clement's rather unusual approach to programming; he played the concerto in two parts, separated by an interval and a group of solos (including a sonata for a single-stringed fiddle played upside down!) Given these antics, no wonder the audience that night dismissed the piece.

It was the great Joachim, and later Fritz Kreisler, who made the concerto as popular as it now is. It took their crusading to convince the public of the worth of a piece which avoids brilliance for brilliance's sake, and integrates the solo line into a great symphonic development. After the initial hair-raising octaves, the soloist joins the orchestra in the discourse of the first movement; he emerges again in the limelight in the larghetto central movement, which presents him with variations over a hymn-like theme. The rondo more than makes up for this solemnity, with its high-flying (paired, oddly, with a bassoon) and a jovial finale to one of Beethoven's finest creations.

D小調序曲

韓德爾

(1685—1759)

(英國作曲家歐格爾改編)

自一七一八年起，韓德爾受僱於英國貴族贊度士公爵布列節斯宮中為音樂總監，曾作多首合唱及器樂作品，包括著名之十一首「贊度士頌歌」；其中第二首採用聖經中詩篇第九、十一、十二及十三篇為題材，名為「篤信於主」，該頌歌以一莊嚴之序曲開始。

十九世紀末英國作曲家韓德爾仰慕英國維多利亞女王時代之音樂，因受此序曲華貴及輝煌之氣氛所吸引，遂將此原來為巴洛克時代室樂團所寫之序曲重新編訂，配以現代化之器樂效果，使成為一首多姿多采，氣質超卓之作品。

太平山下

林樂培

(生於一九三五年)

林樂培生於澳門，曾赴加拿大多倫多大學，後期進入南加州大學深造，專攻電影配樂。自一九六四年回港以來，林氏曾致力於音樂創作及提倡香港作品於國際上之地位。其「謝灶」一曲，乃受香港電台委約作成曾於本年度代表參加於巴黎舉行之世界電台聯合作品首播，被選為前十五名。

林氏音樂創作之風格雖為多元化，然其中最特出乃中西音樂技巧之交替運用，其配器手法多姿多采，而充滿戲劇性。「太平山下」為香港音樂事務統籌處本年度委約作品之一。

幻想

金容振

(生於一九三〇年)

於韓國出生之金容振，早年肄業於漢城國家大學，獲音樂學士及碩士學位，隨後更往美國紐約及依利諾州深造，回國後任教於漢城國家大學為副教授。

金氏之重要作品包括有「布拉姆斯頌」（四組絃樂及敲擊合奏），以及管絃樂作品「樂韻」。

金氏作品組織緊密，偶亦採用比較前衛性之手法，純粹以聲音作為樂曲之依歸。

太陽音樂之三 彼得·史高霍
(生於一九二九年)

今年五十歲之澳洲作曲家史高霍曾肄業於墨爾本大學及牛津大學，師承著名作曲家艾文洛伯以及愛堅·華萊斯。自一九六三年以後，史高霍任教於雪梨大學。

澳洲在世界樂壇上近十數年來才漸露頭角，史高霍在音樂創作上之努力，對此實貢獻不少。他曾表示對歐洲音樂無大興趣，自認其創作靈感主要來自澳洲本身之傳統音樂素材。他認為亞洲之音樂觀念，實對再造及加強西方創作技巧方面，有著莫大幫助。

「太陽音樂」之結構及概念，正表示出史氏論點。在樂曲中，他嘗試不依靠西方自貝多芬以來所慣用之主題發展手法，而採用充滿東方色彩之概念，嘗試純粹以聲音之感覺為依歸之結構。為達到此目的，他曾說：

「一套全新之樂器運用技巧——微分音及半音之音叢由絃樂器及銅管樂器發出，絃樂緩慢不斷之滑音；銅管樂器不同聲量及強弱節拍之和絃互相交替；由五十九個不同之四分一音所組成稠密及閃爍之和絃……以圖創造出一種完全靜止，充滿咀咒性以及嚇人之感覺，這是一種富有強烈色彩之音樂，正像耀眼強光，閃爍燦爛；也許只有像澳洲這樣的一個國度才會孕育出沈澁對光與熱莫名之敵意。」

「太陽音樂」之三雖為中等規模樂隊而寫，然其敲擊樂器部份則被大大增強，並加入了傳統樂器以及一些原始之亞洲音樂聲響。

西班牙狂想曲 夏布里耶
(1841—1894)

夏布里耶原是法律界出身，曾服務於巴黎內政部達十八年之久。然他於工餘時間却結交很多當時藝術界知名人士，如印象派大師倫維、曼尼及作曲家科里等。四十歲那年，曾到德國華格納歌劇之都拜奈，受其音樂所感動，遂立志貢獻下半生於音樂創作。雖然夏布里耶以後只活多十三年，但仍能創作出大批可以留存千古之美妙作品。

夏布里耶決志之初，首批作品多是鋼琴曲，因他本身對鋼琴演奏素有研究。隨後夏氏到西班牙遊覽，被當地風光所陶醉，回國後遂作成「西班牙狂想曲」。全曲取材自西班牙各地民族舞曲，繼有西維爾、格蘭羅特以及亞坎巴等地作品。然全曲最精采之處，是接近完場將伸縮號角所奏出之引人傾耳之樂句——純粹只有夏布里耶才能作出此另人讚嘆之音韻。

菲島掠影 露格里芝雅·加施力

加施力為菲律賓最著名及最受敬仰之作曲家之一，他除了出任國家文化中心之主席外，更常聯絡國內外機構，努力推行音樂事務。

加施力早年於本國大學畢業後，曾留學美國伊士文音樂學院。回國後一直不斷創作，作品總數已達二百多首，形式包括民歌、藝術歌曲、合唱、室樂以及大型管絃樂。

除作曲外，加施力更致力研究發掘及運用傳統亞洲樂器，使能與西方樂器互相配合，達到東西合璧。

「菲島掠影」作於一九七四年，採用菲律賓三個最大島嶼。呂宋、維沙也及閩丹撈之民族音樂為素材。第一樂章「山邊」充滿田野氣氛，有著一般狂想曲的感覺；第二樂章「安眠曲」則比

較寧靜，主要由長笛奏出美妙的旋律；最後樂章「節日」描寫一條小村莊的慶典，村民翩翩起舞，強勁的鼓樂聲中，更有欣喜的狂叫。

洋娃娃舞曲 羅永暉
(生於一九四九年)

羅永暉生於香港，現年三十歲早年曾留學台灣國立大學攻讀作曲，事師台灣名作曲家許常惠，回港後從事教學工作，並為香港中文大學音樂系之兼任結他導師。一九七七年再赴美深造，隨約翰·歌羅福於美國加州大學研究作曲法，並獲碩士銜。

羅永暉之作品富有創意，像寫於一九七二年之琵琶獨奏曲「蠶」混合了傳統及現代手法，用自由調性之材料應用於中國傳統樂器上；又像長笛及結他二重奏曲「桑林調」，採用較前衛之作曲法，但仍不失中國氣氛，該曲被獲選為代表香港參加一九七九年於巴黎舉行之國際新作交流會。

羅永暉最近之作品，包括絃樂四重奏「坐看雲起時」及管絃樂曲「籤」等，皆採用無調性手法而力求配合中國音樂之韻味。

洋娃娃舞曲是本年特別為香港音樂事務統籌處而寫的作品之一。

A小調低音大提琴協奏曲
多明尼高·德拉高奈

被喻為「低音大提琴中之帕格利尼」之意大利大提琴家兼作曲家德拉高奈自幼即天才橫溢，除於幼年即加入當時著名音樂學府聖馬可大教堂擔任大提琴手外，更不斷創作無數作品。像與他同期之作曲家莫扎特一樣，德拉高奈曾週遊歐洲列國，最後定居英國，渡過晚年。德氏交遊甚廣，當時著名作曲家海頓是他的摯友，貝多芬在信札中也經常提及他的名字。

德拉高奈私生活多姿多采，

除嗜音樂外，他亦是一收藏家，專門收藏洋娃娃以及當時流行之鼻煙盒；德氏亦愛寵物，每次演出都要令其愛犬卡路坐在身邊。

德拉高奈大約有數百首低音大提琴作品留存於世，原稿現存於倫敦大英博物館中，其中較具特色的乃其改編自巴赫風琴賦格曲之低音部份。今次音樂會所演出之A小調低音大提琴協奏曲，則比較普及，然亦要求高度之演奏技巧，才能使這深厚沈重之樂器現出其罕有乖靈之神采。

雙絃樂隊協奏曲 米高·狄貝特
(生於一九〇五年)

米高·狄貝特被喻為英國當代最具智慧及個性之作曲家，他對自己作品的質素極為重視，精雕細琢，毫不苟且，其作品數量較少，故其知名度有時比不上如布烈頓般的多產作曲家。狄貝特之主要作品包括三套歌劇，一首清唱劇，三首交響曲以及其他管絃樂，合唱，或室樂作品。

狄貝特雖生於倫敦，然他多居於鄉間，對大自然特為喜愛，他亦是一堅定之和平主義者，曾因反對英國參加第一次世界大戰，拒絕服役而被囚三月之久。後來繼著名作曲家賀斯出任著名莫利學院之音樂總監，曾在倫敦安排無數高水準及多姿采之音樂會

雙絃樂隊協奏曲為狄貝特作品中較受人喜愛的。因採用兩個絃樂隊互相對奏，故作者有更多機會發揮兩者間節奏上及對答上更有趣之想像。絃樂器柔和的音色好像特別引起狄貝特創作旋律之能力，於第三樂章裏，複雜節奏之中由低音部冒出一清新優美之旋律，酷似作者最喜愛之黑人靈歌；隨後樂曲以在一有力的氣氛中結束。

「1812」序曲 柴可夫斯基

世人對柴可夫斯基的評價，

往往有兩個不同極端的看法。初接觸古典音樂的人士認為柴可夫斯基的音樂能給予他們甚至比貝多芬的音樂更大的滿足；而久經訓練的音樂分析家則強調其音樂缺乏完整結構的弱點，而忽略其他好處。

事實上柴可夫斯基音樂真正的地位，應該處於此兩極端之間，而稍偏於初學音樂人士的看法。他的音樂感人之處，往往無人能倣效；雖則發自個人之感受，而往往因柴可夫斯基用最簡單，最直接以及強烈的手法表現，所以他的音樂能廣傳於世而贏得後世千萬人之共鳴：例如充滿悲鬱心情的第四、第五及第六交響曲，流露真愛的「羅密歐與茱莉葉」交響曲，甜美的A小調三重奏，或是神奇的「胡桃夾子」組曲等。

有人指出柴可夫斯基有時因缺乏音樂發展的技術，退而求助於片段性樂想，不過，雖則有其他作曲家比他更高深及思想更嚴密，然試問又有誰能與他獨到而豪邁的表現力相比？柴可夫斯基把自己的心放進音樂裏，只有用心而不是用理性去欣賞他的音樂，才會領略到個中精采的地方。

「1812 序曲」作於一八八〇年，像貝利奧斯之「葬禮凱旋交響曲」一樣，同樣為一盛大之室外典禮而作。當時是在莫斯科一間特為紀念俄國於一八一二年擊退侵略者拿破崙而建造之大教堂剛落成時，柴可夫斯基特為此大教堂之祝聖典禮而作了此首隆重之交樂序曲。

樂曲開始時，採用俄國一首聖詩「主救爾民」為題材，中段的音樂則描寫法俄大戰，俄國國歌以及法國之「馬賽進行曲」互相交織；為求達到輝煌迫真效果，更動用數枚大砲於演出時發放；混亂過後，俄國國歌以勝利者姿態再現，全曲於一燦爛光榮之氣氛中結束。

葬禮凱旋交響曲 貝遼士
(1803 — 1869)

法國浪漫期作曲家貝遼士善長於創作大型，戲劇化及燦爛輝煌之管絃樂曲，像膾炙人口之「羅馬嘉年華絃曲」以及著名之「幻想交響曲」等。貝氏亦是一位敢於創新及有遠見之作曲家，他曾嘗試以合唱配合樂隊演出，但仍覺未能表達其內心感情，有時更採用獨唱以及小組合奏配合前兩者，來求增加音樂之表現力，以此手法編寫成的樂曲有著名之大型清唱歌劇「羅密歐與茱莉葉」。

「葬禮凱旋交響曲」從某一角度來說，可算是貝氏比較保守之表現。此曲作於一八四〇年，當時貝利奧斯受法國內政部特別委約，為紀念一八三〇年之革命而作，樂曲原寫給軍樂團演奏，為配合龐大禮儀之進行。全曲共分三樂章，首樂章實為一葬禮進行曲，貝遼士身穿軍服，領導者樂隊及遊行隊伍，浩蕩地操進大革命之發源地，巴黎巴士的廣場；第二樂章則為於廣場公開進行之紀念儀式之配樂，莊嚴而隆重；最後一樂章却充滿歡悅氣氛，慶祝大革命之凱旋。

自一七八九年之大革命以來，法國政府一直鼓吹以雄壯而感人之遊行音樂來團結民心，此一傳統，影響貝遼士，他一直以來都渴望能寫一首歌頌國家的作品。「葬禮凱旋交響曲」花去他四十個工作小時，但亦為貝氏罕有之傑作。演奏此曲，所費人力甚大（至少需要樂手一百〇七人）然樂曲有著一種令人沈醉而興奮之感覺，強烈而尖銳之單簧管，而及有緊密節奏之戰鼓，使聽者不期然跟著音樂踏步前進。

第一樂章之進行曲，對指揮者來說是種考驗，他一面要維持前進之節奏感，另一方面却要表現出樂曲應有之莊嚴及氣魄。在第二樂章裏，伸縮號獨奏配合著儀式之進行，而全曲則在第三樂章輝煌之氣氛中結束。

絃樂二章 服部公一
(生於一九三三年)

服部公一早年於日本受教育，隨後赴美國密西根州立大學及柏林音樂學院深造，回國後忙於寫作及監製音樂教育之電視節目，為日本著名作曲家之一。

服部公一除活躍於日本樂壇外，更出國講學，足跡遍及蘇聯、南北美洲以及東南亞。服部公一亦專於指揮，常指揮演出自己及日本其他作曲家之作品。

「絃樂二章」作於一九七七年，為服部公一所作眾多為學校樂隊演奏作品之一。

錦繡年華 黃育義

黃育義在香港接受音樂教育，一九六〇年赴西德漢堡國立音樂學院深造，主修作曲，一九六八年回港，現任教香港音樂學院、香港浸會學院藝術系及香港大學校外課程部。

「錦繡年華」乃為今次亞洲青年音樂營而作的樂曲，以朝氣蓬勃及精神滿溢的輕快節奏來表達年青人的天真，熱情和充滿活力的錦繡年華。香港是中西文化交流的城市，作者用五聲音階及大小調交替運用，來表達這種現象，更用無調及十二列音音樂的手法來描述年青人與新事物的接觸，以及遠大光明的前程。

A小調小提琴協奏曲
巴哈（一六八五至一七五〇）
(快板)

行板
很快的快板

一七一七至一七二三年，巴哈受聘於雷奧博王子為柯坦宮教堂的音樂總監。王子酷愛音樂，聘有十八名音樂家。巴哈主要的工作是為皇宮安排非宗教音樂。王子有一個很好的室樂樂團（這也許是觸發巴哈寫布蘭登堡協奏曲的因素），他自己亦有參加演奏。巴哈與王子是深交，王子是巴哈第一個兒子的教父；日後王子突然逝世，巴哈回到皇宮指揮葬禮的清唱曲。

巴哈兩首小提琴協奏曲都是為柯坦宮的小型樂團寫作。小提琴的獨奏部份——也許是現存樂史中最早的小提琴協奏曲。巴哈努力要寫成一個有深度內涵的音樂作品，以供有高音樂修養的王子欣賞。樂曲中亦偶有舞蹈的節拍，令旋律更加輕快，加強了樂曲的和諧。

原稿中的第一樂章並沒有註明速度，不過依據傳統，這該是快板，輕快的過門將樂章分段及結束。行板就像巴哈其他的協奏曲一樣，以低音為基礎，反複出現；終曲又再採用不歇斷的過門，聽來有點像格拉舞曲。

D大調小提琴協奏曲 貝多芬
作品編號六十一
(一七七〇至一八二七)
從容的快板
甚緩板
迴旋曲

貝多芬協奏曲多為鋼琴而作，但他在其唯一小提琴協奏曲中，盡道心聲，作品水平達到最高峯。

此協奏曲作於一八〇六年，乃貝多芬一生中最快樂的時期。他在友誼及愛情方面都順利，事業亦獲成功。貝多芬將這首協奏曲送給摯友史提芬·布魯寧，作為紀念他與布魯寧一家美好的友誼。

協奏曲首演的演奏者乃二十六歲的克萊曼特，克氏當時任維也納劇院樂團指揮及首席，對此曲未有適當演譯，首演險成鬧劇，及至以後經過姚阿幸及克賴斯勒精采的演奏，此樂曲才流行起來。樂曲獨奏及樂隊融合成為交響曲，以令人震驚的八度音程開首，隨後獨奏者與樂團互相對答，完成第一樂章。在第二樂章獨奏在甚緩板的中段再次顯露，在一個聖詩般的主題上變奏。第三樂章迴旋曲加進雄心勃勃的獨奏，以歡樂的樂句結束這完美的協奏曲。

CHINESE MUSIC

LEE Suat-lien (conductor of the Singapore Youth Chinese Orchestra) was born in Singapore and has been active in the Chinese musical scene for over 10 years. His dedication towards artistic work and his enthusiasm in training the young has won him wide acclaim.

Lee received musical training in Israel. He is now the conductor of the Singapore Youth Chinese Orchestra of the Ministry of Education and of two other orchestras. He is also instructor for Chinese instrumental classes organised by the Ministry. Lee has conducted a series of lectures on Chinese instruments and history of music in the University of Singapore and has also written scripts for musical programmes on radio. He conducted the Singapore Youth Chinese Orchestra in the International Festival of Youth Orchestras held in Switzerland in August 1971. In February 1972, he was leader of the Chinese instrumental music ensemble which went as part of the Singapore

National Arts Troupe to the Adelaide Arts Festival in Australia. In 1973, he travelled with the same troupe to Russia. The Singapore Youth Chinese Orchestra toured the Philippines in 1975 under his conductorship. He led another Chinese instrumental ensemble to Japan in August 1977. In August 1979, he was invited to appear in the Oriental Music Festival in Durham. He has also conducted the Singapore Youth Chinese Orchestra and the Chinese Orchestra of the School of Commerce & Industry Alumni Association in many performances in Malaysia.

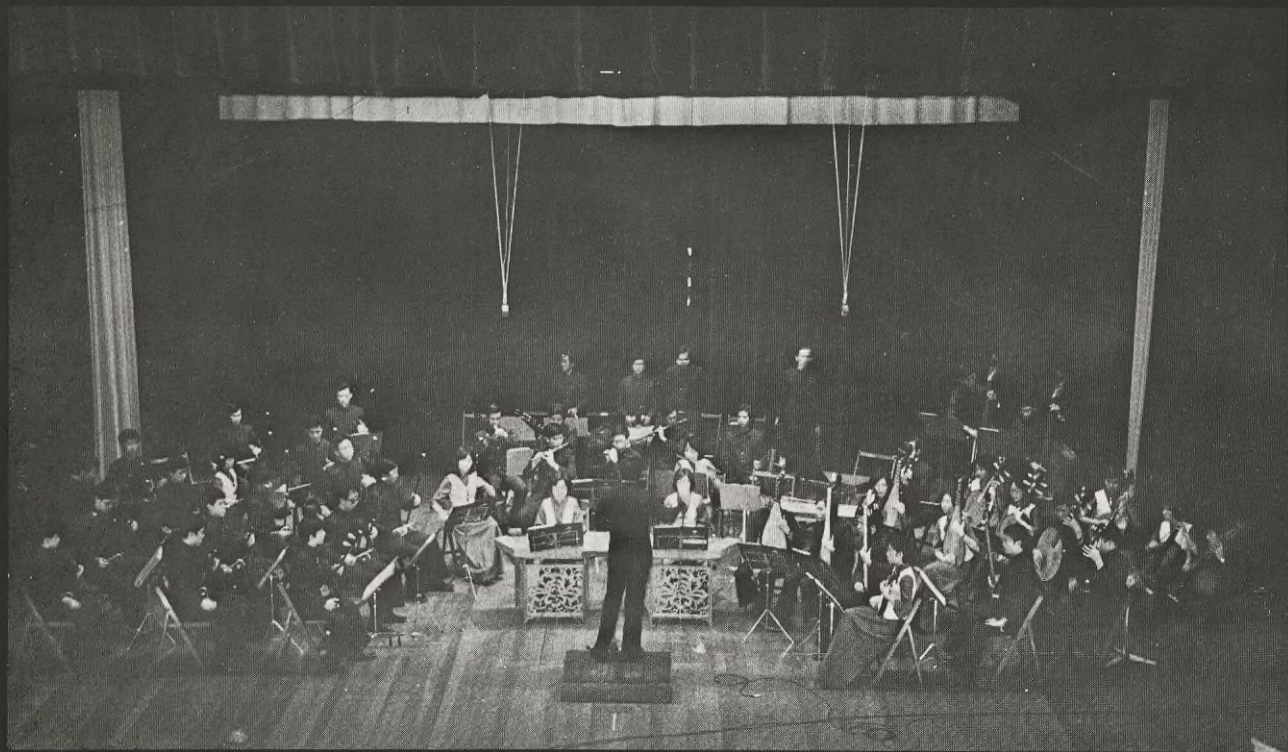

新加坡教育部青年華樂團指揮 李雪嶺先生簡介

李雪嶺，新加坡出生，活躍於華樂界已有十餘年，其對藝術工作之認真苦幹與勉導後進之熱忱，充分表現出其音樂才華。

李君曾受訓於以色列李克利

斯指揮班，現為教育部青團、人民警衛隊華樂團及後備軍協華樂團擔任指揮之職，並兼任教育部華樂訓練班導師。李君曾在新加坡大學主講中國音樂史與樂器講座，並曾為廣播電台音樂雜誌撰寫專稿。

七一年八月，曾出席瑞士舉行之國際青年弦樂節，指揮教育部青年華樂團的演出。七二年二月，率華樂小組隨新加坡國家藝術團參加澳洲阿德雷德藝術節，次年且前往蘇聯。七五年，指揮青年華樂團赴菲律賓演奏。七七年八月，率華樂小組前往日本。今年八月，受英國主辦當局之邀請，前往英國德汗(DURHAM)參加「東方音樂節」的演出。此外，也曾多次率領青年華樂團與工商校友會華樂團到馬來西亞演奏。

SINGAPORE YOUTH CHINESE ORCHESTRA

The Singapore Youth Chinese Orchestra was formed in 1970 by the Young Musicians' Society with the aim of promoting and improving the art of music making among the youths.

It started off with a membership of 30. Under the able direction of Mr. Lee Suat Lien, the strength of the orchestra has increased to 120 with 54 senior members and 66 junior members from schools, tertiary institutions as well as youths who are in National Service and those working in private and public sectors. Through the keenness of the members and the hardwork of its conductor Mr. Lee Suat Lien, the Singapore Youth Chinese Orchestra is one of the few groups sought after regularly by TV and radio producers to participate in their programmes. The orchestra consists of a full range of Chinese musical instruments and it has a wide repertoire of traditional Chinese instrumental music as well as modern and local compositions.

This orchestra has constantly served the community at large through participation at cultural shows, rallies, Singapore Youth Festival, Music and Dance Presentations, the Ministry of Culture's Music for Everyone Series and concerts at parks and other public places as well as for schools. Its first trip abroad as musical ambassadors for Singapore was in 1971 when it was invited to participate at the Third International Festival of Youth Orchestra in Lausanne, Switzerland. During their stay in Switzerland, the orchestra was invited by the Mayor of Lausanne to play at the homes of the retarded and orphans which was greatly appreciated by those present. Since then it has made the following overseas performances and goodwill tours:—

1972 — Teeside Music Festival (won the 2nd prize in Folk Music Group).

1973 — Goodwill tour and performances to West Malaysia which was a great success.

1974 — Participation in the Llangollen International Eisteddfod in Wales, UK

(The Ensemble won 2nd place in the Folk Group Section).

— Performance in London for the students of Singapore and Malaysia.

1975 — Goodwill tour and performances in the Philippines to foster greater understanding between the ASEAN countries.

1976 — Invitation to perform in Muar, Kuala Lumpur and Penang. A musical workshop was organized on the request of the Chinese orchestra enthusiasts in West Malaysia, to share with our Malaysian neighbours our instrumental expertise.

1977 — Invitation by the Selangor Chinese Assembly Hall to conduct a week-long workshop on Chinese Instrumental Music in Kuala Lumpur. The workshop was a great success and it concluded with the combined 100 strong orchestra performing in an evening of instrumental music.

The Singapore Youth Chinese Orchestra has been actively engaged in promoting Chinese music since its inception in 1970. With the great interest created in schools for Chinese instrumental music, the orchestra has plans to go to schools to give concerts and to conduct workshops for school Chinese orchestra members.

新加坡青年華樂團

新加坡青年華樂團於一九七〇年成立，隸屬青年音樂家協會。其目標為推廣青年音樂活動及提高表演水準。成立時有團員三十人，在李雪嶺先生循循善誘下，團員人數增至一百二十人，包括五十四個高級及六十六個初級團員，來自各中學及大專學院，亦有服軍役及在公共和私人機構中服務的青年。團員及指揮李雪嶺先生努力耕耘，為新加坡青年華樂團建立良好的聲譽，經常獲邀在電視及電台參加演出。樂團樂部包括全部的中國樂器，而曲目除有傳統的中樂外還有現代及新加坡的作品。

樂團經常參加社區活動，如文化表演、大匯演、新加坡青年節、音樂及舞蹈表演、文化部的大眾音樂節目及在公園、學校和公眾地方舉行的音樂會。一九七一年代表新加坡參加在瑞士 LAUSANNE 舉行的第三屆國際青年音樂節，受 LAUSANNE 市長邀請往孤兒院和弱智人士之家演奏，在座者皆大表讚賞。隨後曾往外地作以下親善訪問及表演：

一九七二年——TEESIDE 音樂節（獲民樂組第二獎）。

一九七三年——往西馬來西亞成功演出。

一九七四年——參加英國威爾斯 LLANGOLLEN INTERNATIONAL EISTEDDFOD（獲民樂組第二名）。

一九七四年——在倫敦新加坡及馬來西亞留學生表演。

一九七五年——往菲律賓親善表演，目的為促進東南亞國家之友誼。

一九七六年——應邀往 MUAR，吉隆坡及檳城演出，並與西馬來西亞之華中樂團互相交流。

一九七七年——應邀往吉隆坡為 SELANGOR 華人會所主持一星期之中國音樂研習班，非

Hong Kong Youth Chinese Orchestra

Under the conductorship of TONG Leung-tak, the Youth Chinese Orchestra began its weekly rehearsals in July 1978 and gave an inaugural concert on 26th December, 1978. Thereafter it gave regular performances in the various districts of Hong Kong. On 11th February 1979 the Youth Chinese Orchestra joined three other Chinese orchestras in Hong Kong in a "quadrasonic concert". This concert was in many ways the first of its kind in Hong Kong: it was the first time a Chinese music concert was performed in the open air with over 400 players from four orchestras seated in four corners of football pitch (thereby producing a "quadrasonic" sound effect). In addition to playing orchestral music, the orchestra also accompanied a 200-member children choir and 60 dancers in the performance of Chinese songs and traditional dances. This concert was well received by a large audience and has been commented on by critics as one of the most interesting and pioneering ventures of the Office. On 20th April, 1979, the Orchestra visited Macau and gave a public concert at the Teatro Diocesano. It toured the United Kingdom and France this August/September with the Hong Kong Youth Symphony Orchestra and gave very successful concerts.

Since July 1978, the Youth Chinese Orchestra has become the symbol of growth of the rapidly developing cultural scene in Hong Kong. The Orchestra is now the goal of young musicians and the pride of their members. But most important of all, this rapid growth of the Orchestra proved the point — that music is one of the best media through which our young can develop their own artistry and personality; and that irrespective of their race, nationality, age and background, our young people will work together in harmony towards a common cultural objective.

香港青年中樂團

在湯良德之指揮下，樂團於一九七八年七月成立，經五個月之緊湊練習，於同年十二月廿六日舉辦成立音樂會。除經常參加地區性演出外，中樂團曾在七九年二月十一日與香港三個中樂團作四聲道之公開演奏。該形式之音樂會可謂創香港之先河——四個中樂團之團員分別坐於球場的四個角落，以能達到四聲道之效果。除演奏樂曲外，中樂團更為一擁有二百名之兒童合唱團及六十位舞蹈家伴奏。是次演出，觀眾人數達數千名，並深獲好評，更被認定為統籌處之大膽嘗試及創新之舉。於四月二十日，中樂團訪澳門並在當地之公教大會堂舉行一場音樂會，本年八／九月間，與香港青年交響樂團訪英、法演出，非常成功。

自一九七八年成立以來，青年中樂團已逐漸成為香港樂壇一股新力量。年青樂手均以能加入該樂團為榮。

從樂團之迅速發展可證明音樂是最佳之娛樂活動之一——透過音樂，青年人可以培養他們的藝術所長，及個性，而不論他們的種族、國籍、年齡及背景是否相同，青年人也能和諧地向一共同文化目標邁進。

Notes on selected Chinese music items

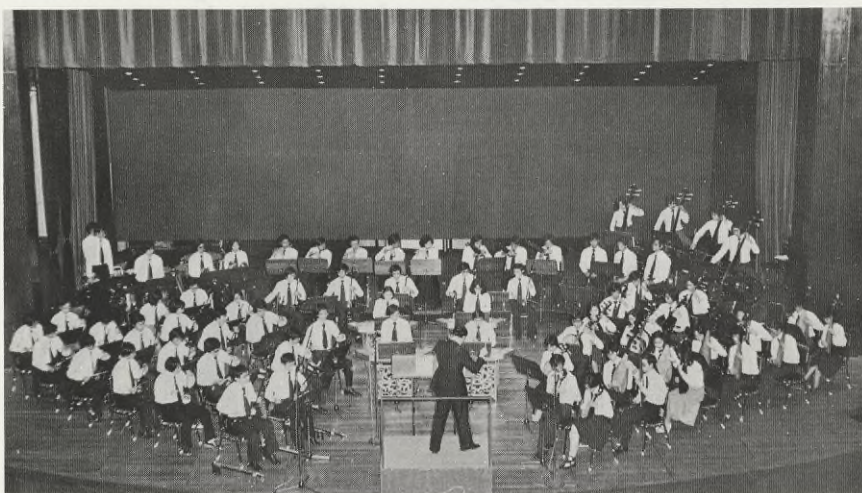

The music items rehearsed and performed by the Singapore Youth Chinese Orchestra and the combined Chinese orchestras, dance troupes and chorus from Hong Kong fall into three main categories: classical pieces for solo and ensemble playing, compositions for the Chinese orchestra and music rewritten or re-arranged for accompanying folk dances. The following notes briefly describe selected items in each of the three categories.

Classical items — the music with the longest history is probably Yu Qiao Wen Da (Dialogue). Legend has it that the piece was composed during or before the Song Dynasty (960 — 1280 A.D.). It is one of the best loved compositions for the qin, an ancient instrument. The music is composed in such a way to form the effect of a dialogue between a fisherman and a woodcutter. There are imitations of the sounds of rowing and wood-cutting and the listener could almost visualise the leisurely life of the fisherman and the woodcutter. Another piece is San Liu (Three and six), which is one of the eight most famous tunes of southern China. A composition of the Qing Dynasty (1644 — 1911 A.D.), the crisp and rhythmic melody describes the joyful celebration of a good harvest in a picturesque village setting.

Orchestral pieces — many composers have written programmatic music for performance by a Chinese orchestra. Some describe traditional customs and rural scenes, such as:—

Tai Hua Qiao (The Bride in the Wedding Sedan Chair) — it was customary in the past in many rural areas of China for villagers to carry a bride on a sedan chair from one village to another on her wedding day. This piece of joyful folk music, re-arranged now for solo on the suo-na (a double reed ethnic wind instrument) could well have been played by the small instrumental ensemble which would accompany the bride on her ride to her new home;

Liang Xiao (Lunar New Year's Eve) — composer Liu Tian-hua (1895 — 1932 A.D.) is one of the most famous Chinese composers. His er-hu (a two-string bowed instrument) compositions are standard studies for virtually every er-hu soloist. Liang Xiao was composed on 22nd January, 1928. The music is of typical southern Chinese flavour. It paints a peaceful picture of a Chinese family happily celebrating New Year's Eve and joyfully awaiting the arrival of the Lunar New Year;

Mei Li Di Xi-Shuang-Ban-Na (The Beautiful Xi-Shuang-Ban-Na) — Xi-Shuang-Ban-Na is the name of a district in the Yun-nan Province. Based on a folk melody, the music describes the life of the hard-working peasants living in the area.

Cao Yuan Xiao Zi Mei (Sisters of the Pasture) — a 1974 composition by Lau Tak-hoi and Wong Yin-chiu, originally for performance by a symphony orchestra. The music describes the life of the nomadic shepherd who live on the pasture of Mongolia.

Others depict various aspects of life in a modern society or in an industrialised city:—

Gang Shui Ben Liu (The Rolling Steel Mill) — a 1977 composition, the Chinese orchestra is used to portray the bustling life in a modern steel mill and the perseverance and dedication of those who work in it.

Xiao Bo Mi (Soccer Fan)

Yu Jia Gu Niang (The Young Lady from the Fishing Village) — these two compositions were written in June 1979 by Tong Leung-tak in commemoration of the holding of the Asian Youth Music Camp in Hong Kong. In the music, Tong describes two familiar scenes in Hong Kong — one on a soccer field with two teams of youngsters playing in a feverish game and the other in one of the many fishing villages around the territory.

You Tian Di Zao Chen (The Oil Field in the Morning) — composer Wong Shue-chiu wrote this piece of music in 1968 and used the Chinese orchestra to tell the story of one day's event at an oil field — sunrise, followed by a song of the workers; then the exhilaration when oil is struck at the field and finally, a chorus sung by those who had a job well done.

Then there are the transcripts and variations based on folk tunes from the various provinces of China:—

A-La-Mu-Han — A-La-Mu-Han is the name of a beautiful young lady who lived in the Xin Jiang Province — a folk song in her praise;

Dui Hua (The All-season Flower) — a folk tune from the An Hui Province;

Bu-Gu-Niao Jiao Chi Liao (The Cuckoo is late this Spring) — a folk song of the Shan Bei Province, where the farmers were earnestly awaiting the first call of the cuckoo, the arrival of Spring;

Wu-Su-Lei Xiang Dong Liu (The Wu-Su-Lei River flows eastwards) — a folk song of the He-Zhe tribe, who depend on the Wu-Su-Lei River for their livelihood.

Mu Min Xin Ge (Song of the Herdsmen) — composed in 1973 by Jian Guang-yi and Wang Zhi-wei for solo on the di-zi (the Chinese bamboo flute), the melody is based on a folk tune from Mongolia. The Mongolians are herdsmen and the music describes the peaceful and joyful Mongolians travelling with their herd in the wide pastures of Mongolia.

For the outdoor performance of combined Chinese orchestras, chorus and dance troupes, choreographer Ying Long-ping has arranged a number of Chinese dances, based on music of different background:—

Jian Wu (Sword Dance) — a classical duet of a brother and sister who were performing frontier duties in bright moonlight;

Da Yan Nan Fei (South Fly the Snow Geese) — an episode during the flight of a flock of snow geese towards the south, in search of warmer weather. The flock was blown off course in a snow storm and two young ones lost touch with the main team. The whole flock turned back to search for the lost ones and, as all good stories would end, the young ones were found and they flew on in search of peace and warmth.

Liang Zhu (The Butterfly Lovers) — the dance is based on two extracts from the Butterfly Lovers Violin Concerto which was written in 1958-9 by two young composers attached to the Shanghai Conservatory. The concerto might best be described as a programme-concerto in Chinese idiom, its narrative taken from a classic Chinese Opera story. The first section describes the meeting of Shan Bo, a student, and Ying Tai, who, in order to go off to study, must disguise herself as a boy. Their friendship — her love for him — is sundered as she is called off to rejoin her family. Their parting is symbolised in a doleful violin/cello duet, as the section ends. In the second section the story unfolds. Ying Tai's family arranges her marriage to a wealthy neighbour. Shan Bo, at last realising all that has transpired, laments and dies of a broken heart. Ying Tai, on the way to her wedding, passes his grave. With a clap of thunder the tomb opens, she hurls herself in, and the two lovers are united in paradise.

And finally, to commemorate the occasion of the 3rd Asian Youth Music Camp, 3 officers of the Music Administrator's Office wrote a song as a dedication to the Asian Youth Music Camp movement, with accompaniment by a Chinese orchestra. The music is written by Tung Tak-leong, with the lyrics by Tong Leung-tak and Lui Ki-ling.

Chorus (translated ad lib):—

Ah! Sing Gloria!
Cheerfully we sing!
We are Asian young musicians.
United as one, cheerfully we sing,
To our friendship,
To our progress,
To advancement.
Through our fellowship we are united.
Joyfully we sing!

亞洲青年音樂營 (香港) 一九七九
Asian Youth Music Camp 1979 Hong Kong

「節日的歡騰」

「鑼鼓震天響，鞭炮沖雲霄，調龍舞獅迎新春，風調雨順年年好」。

本曲作於一九七七年春節，樂曲描寫了在中國傳統節日裏，人們歡渡新春的那種熱烈場面。

「巍巍寶塔山」

「巍巍寶塔山，高高入雲天
潺潺延河水，源遠幾千載」

一九七五年劉明沅先生根據一首陝北歌曲改編而成，樂曲描繪了古都延安的壯麗景色，人們過着和平幸福的生活。

「大雁南飛」

「深秋季節裏，大雁南去，在途中遇到了暴風雪。一對小雁受傷失落，它們掙扎飛翔，終於在大雁的護衛下，回到了隊伍，繼續南飛」。一九七九年邢浪平先生用這故事編成舞蹈表現蒙古族人民，不畏艱難，勇敢堅強的性格。

「美麗的梭羅河」

「梭羅河水源流長，世世代代熱愛它，河水流不盡，贊歌唱不完」。

「油田的早晨」

這是一首四段體的樂曲。

第一段引子奏出油田早晨太陽初升，鳥鳴花香的景色，接著奏出優美如歌的慢板，使人聯想到大自然的美麗。

第二段為快板，樂曲模仿鑽機聲響徹四方，奏出工人們愉快的勞動心情。

第三段表現更為熱烈，是歡慶油田順利建成的熱鬧場面。

結尾以一個壯麗的進行曲式結束，表現出工程之宏偉及對油

田的歌頌。

作者王樹錘，寫於一九六八年左右。

「阿拉木汗」

這是一首新疆民歌，由謝功成編曲，描繪一個美麗勤勞的姑娘叫「阿拉木汗」。

「對花」

安徽民歌，用了鄉土的風味，歡快的旋律，唱出一年四季人們所最愛戴的花朵。真如歌詞中所說的「一年四季百花開，百花開放人人愛，人人愛來人人戴，姑娘呀小伙子戴起來」。

「滿江紅」

中國南宋名將岳飛是一位傑出的民族英雄。歌曲「滿江紅」是以岳飛的詞譜成一首中國古曲。歌曲表達了英雄「盡忠報國」的偉大胸懷和「還我河山」的必勝信心。

「布谷鳥叫遲了」

陝北民歌描寫農家春耕時節，等待布谷鳥在枝頭上迎春歌的情景。

「關山月」

此曲始見於王賓魯先生「梅庵琴譜」（一九三一年），為梅庵古琴派之名曲。中國民族音樂理論家楊蔭瀏先生，曾試配以唐代詩人李白的同名詩，以表現古代征人遠戍邊疆的不滿情緒。

「美麗的西雙版納」

雲南民歌，由湯良德改編為樂隊合奏曲。樂曲描繪，雲南美麗的西雙版納（地方名）世世代代居住着傣族人民，他們能歌善舞，勤勞勇敢，如詩似畫的美景，給傣族人帶來無限的歡樂。

「漁樵問答」

此曲的作者不考。明代「藏春塢琴譜」在此曲解題中引及「紫霞洞考」，倘宋代的「紫霞洞琴譜」真有此曲，則其年代可提前到宋或以前。現存琴譜載有此曲的，最早是明代「杏莊太音續譜」（1560），明清琴譜轉載的極多，為流行最廣的琴曲之一。

此曲前段用悠悠自得的樂句重複或移位再現，形成問答對話的效果。另有些摹擬船和砍木的音調，造成了對漁樵生活的聯想。明楊倫「太古遺音」說：「按斯曲，想亦隱君子所作也。因見青山綠水，萬古常新，其間識山水之趣者，惟漁與樵。……是以金蘭同契，拉伴清談，數治亂，論興亡，千載得失，盡付於漁樵談笑之中矣。」這段話頗足以解釋此曲的含意。

「牧民新歌」

「牧民新歌」作於一九七三年，作曲者簡廣易、王志偉兩位本身也是笛子演奏家。樂曲採用了蒙古族的音調編寫而成。歌曲用曲笛來演奏，曲笛音色優美柔和。

樂曲描繪年青一代的內蒙牧民，在藍色遼闊的天空下，無邊無際的草原上盡情高歌的場面。

「梁祝」

舞蹈採用了小提琴協奏曲「梁祝」片斷「樓台會」及「化蝶」的音樂編成。」

故事發生在明末，一對同窗友好，叫梁山伯和祝英台。他們互相敬慕，願做終生伴侶，可是封建的祝員外以父母之命媒妁之言，強行把自己的女兒祝英台許配給有財有勢的馬文才。

樓台會相見後，使梁山伯知情憂鬱而死，當祝英台聞訊後悲切斷腸，終於在祝英台出嫁路過梁山伯的墓前撞墓而死。

「馬兒啊，你慢些走！」

這是一首家鄉的贊歌，抒情、優美、親切、熱情，是一幅美麗的圖畫：

「馬兒啊，你慢些走，慢些走！我要把這迷人的景色看個夠。肥沃的土地好像浸透了油，良田萬畝好像用黃金鋪就。青山滴翠美如畫，人在畫中鬧豐收……。」

林蔭小道多清幽，姑娘樓前在刺繡。

路旁的小溪撥動了琴弦，好像為姑娘的歌聲伴奏，晚風揚起了溫柔的翅膀，永遠隨着我的馬兒走。家鄉啊，我愛你多彩的風姿，我想看個夠，總也看不夠。

「阿依莎」

新疆有位美麗的姑娘叫阿依莎。她美麗勤勞。她的歌聲比百靈鳥都好聽。她唱歌能把千年荒山變綠洲，唱歌能使麥穗金黃棉桃大。

「大戰太行山」

樂曲以河南音樂作基調描寫了河南人民為了改變窮山溝為米糧川的那種艱苦奮鬥的精神。

「漁家姑娘」

樂曲描寫居住在香港的漁家姑娘，她們勤勞勇敢，從小隨着父母，迎烈日，踏風浪，生活在海洋上。樂曲以三段體組成（1）姑娘織網（2）出海捕魚（3）滿載而歸。

「奔馳在千里草原」

舞蹈是根據一九七五年王國潼，李秀琪所創作的一首二胡齊奏曲所編成，在那遼闊無際，綠草茵茵，如詩似畫的大草原上，蒙族牧民揚鞭躍馬，奔馳在千里草原上。

「良宵」

作曲者劉天華先生為中國著名中樂大師，生於一八九五年二月四日，卒於一九三二年六月一日。作品計有十首二胡獨奏曲，三首琵琶獨奏曲及一首合奏曲等。其二胡曲更為每個二胡演奏家之必修課，其中以「良宵」，「光明行」，「空山鳥語」最為著名。

「良宵」作於一九二八年一月廿二日，又名「除夜小唱」。樂曲具有江南風味，描寫在除夕之夜，人們合家聚一堂，守歲過年之情景。

「小波迷」

一九七九年六月湯良德先生特為亞洲青年音樂營演出而作此曲。

樂曲以詼諧的兒歌來表現一群天真活潑的少年，在課餘時間裏，展開了一場你爭我奪的足球比賽。

運動給少年帶來歡樂，促進他們的健康成長，鍛鍊堅強意志。

「草原小妹妹」

這首樂曲由劉德海，吳祖強，王燕樵初作於一九七四年，樂曲描繪了內蒙草原上有一對英雄小姊妹，在一次牧羊時，突然遇到暴風雪，通過她們英雄頑強，不屈不撓的鬥爭，終於戰勝了風雪，保護了羊群。

「洪湖水」

這首樂曲是歌劇音樂改編，描寫了主角凌雲壯志，不畏強暴的崇高品質。

「抬花橋」

這是首民間吹鼓曲。描寫過去鄉村村民在喜慶佳日，奏樂抬轎迎新娘的那種熱鬧場面。

「劍舞」

這是首古典雙人舞，舞蹈表現了一對兄妹，為了保衛邊疆，在一個月光瑩瑩的夜晚，手執利劍，一邊巡邏，一邊練武的情景。

舞蹈由陳華，林阿梅合編，樂曲由符任之先生編配。

「烏蘇里向東流」

赫哲族人們生活愉快，「莊稼綠油油，遍山種花菓，魚兒滿江游，歌聲傳山坡」。

「亞洲青年音樂營之歌」

湯良德、呂其嶺作詞
董德亮作曲

此歌是音統處三位導師在一九七九年七月特為獻給第三屆亞洲青年音樂營而作。

歌詞：

啊！我們歡呼
我們歌唱
亞洲青年音樂家歡聚在一堂
為了友誼
為了進步
我們縱情把歌唱
音樂好像鮮豔的花朵
為我們帶來了歡樂，帶來了幸福
讓這美麗的鮮花
開遍亞洲 要把整個地球鋪鑲
音樂好像可愛的百靈鳥
為我們歌唱友誼，歌唱幸福
讓這美妙的歌聲
飛過群山，越過重洋
在那整個宇宙中迴響
啊！我們歡呼
我們歌唱
亞洲青年音樂家歡聚在一堂
願我們的友誼
傳遍四方
源遠流長

PERSONALITIES

Yehudi Menuhin is one of those rare men who has become a legend in his own lifetime. He made his debut at the age of seven with the San Francisco Orchestra and shortly thereafter in Paris, Berlin, New York and London. Since then he has toured almost every country in the world and as his musicianship developed, so did the man, until he has become as well-known for his humanitarianism as for his glorious playing of the violin. A true citizen of the world, THE SCOTSMAN said of him: "Any investigator of British musical life keeps coming across the mixture of beneficence, idealism and common sense that informs the actions of Mr Menuhin — American's most valuable export to Britain since T S Eliot."

Born in New York in 1916 of Russian parents, Yehudi Menuhin began violin lessons at the age of five, his three teachers being Louis Persinger, Georges Enesco and Adolf Busch. Among others who left indelible impressions upon him as they made music together were Casals, Beecham, Bruno Walter, Furtwaengler, Kreisler, Toscanini, Schnabel, Weingartner, Fritz Bush and Kleiber.

In 1933 Yehudi and his sister, Hephzibah, gave the first of those piano and violin sonata evenings which still remain the memorable musical highlights of concert seasons wherever they appear; their first recordings together in 1932 won the national Prix du Disque in France.

During World War II Yehudi Menuhin gave more than 500 concerts for the Armed Forces, in recognition of which he was awarded the French Legion of Honour and Croix de Lorraine; the Belgium Ordre de la Couronne and Ordre Leopold; the Order of Merit from West Germany and the Order of the Phoenix from Greece. Other honours include the Royal Philharmonic Society's Gold Medal of 1962; the Cobbett Medal of the Worshipful Company of Musicians; the 1971 Sonning Prize (Copenhagen), and in 1974 the Artist/Teacher Award of the American String Teachers Association. He holds Honorary Degrees in eleven British Universities, including Oxford and Cambridge, is a Freeman of the Cities of Edinburgh and Bath and in 1966 was given an Honorary Knighthood (KBE) by Queen Elizabeth. He was the first musician to be awarded in 1979 the Peace Prize of the Boersenverein des Deutschen Buchhandels.

Yehudi Menuhin has introduced to the public a number of new works commissioned by or dedicated to him by Bartok, Bloch, Enesco, Vaughan Williams, William Walton, Lennox Berkeley, Malcolm Williamson, Oedoen Partos, Priaux Rainier, Jacob Gilboa and others. Such is his interest in every category of music that wherever he goes he seeks to discover that which is local and indigenous. Therefore, he was delighted to accept the invitation of the late Prime Minister Nehru to play in India, where in 1952 and 1954 he raised $74,000 for the Famine Fund. Other visits followed: in 1969 he inaugurated the Homi Bhabha Auditorium in Bombay, giving three concerts in memory of his friend, Dr Homi Bhabha, the great atomic scientist. In 1970 he received the Jawaharlal Nehru Peace Award (1968) for his outstanding contribution to and promotion of international understanding, goodwill and friendship among the peoples of the world through the medium of music. He has given concerts for the United Nations in New York and elsewhere with Ravi Shankar, the well-known sitar player and their records have sold into the millions. Apart from his deep interest in Indian music, his latest excursion is into the jazz violinist world where, with that great exponent, Stéphane Grappelli, he has appeared on BBC Television and at concerts and their joint recordings are also best sellers.

After ten years as Artistic Director of the Bath Festival, in 1969 he, with Ian Hunter, for four years directed the Festival of Windsor for which Her Majesty the Queen graciously permitted him the use of two of the great rooms of Windsor Castle. For twentyfour years he has been Artistic Director of the annual Yehudi Menuhin Festival in Gstaad, Switzerland, in recognition of which in 1970 the Swiss people bestowed upon him and his family Honorary Swiss Citizenship. In 1977 he gave his name to an International Music Academy in Gstaad where young graduate string players have the opportunity to both study and perform.

He founded the Bath Festival

Orchestra, which continued under the name of the Menuhin Festival Orchestra and he travelled all over the world with them. He has conducted three Mozart operas, recorded all nine Schubert Symphonies and many other works with them and played in films and on television. In November 1969 Yehudi Menuhin was invited by the Prince of Wales to give a concert with the MFO at Buckingham Palace to mark His Royal Highness's twenty-first birthday. He has also conducted many orchestras of international renown.

Also in 1969, Yehudi Menuhin became President of the International Music Council of UNESCO and recently completed a third and final term of office; he continues, however, as Founding President of the Musicians' International Mutual Aid Fund of the IMC. For some years he has been Chairman of the City of Westminster Arts Council and in 1971 became President of Trinity College of Music.

He possesses an original, inquiring mind and deep sympathy for all people. He speaks German, Russian, French, Italian and Spanish fluently and finds the ideal form of exercise in the practice of Yoga. All his various pursuits and interests are shared by his wife (former dancer and actress, Diana Gould). His son, Gerard studied at Stanford University and Jeremy is a pianist. By his first marriage he has a daughter, Zamira, and a son, Krov, who has recently made three very successful nature films with his wife, Ann, for the BBC.

Yehudi Menuhin has published several books, including THE VIOLIN – SIX LESSONS WITH YEHUDI MENUHIN (Faber and Faber), THEME AND VARIATIONS (Heinemann) and Macdonald and Jane's have published a series of text books of the main musical instruments under his editorship, of which he has written those on the violin and viola. His autobiography, UNFINISHED JOURNEY, has been translated into many languages. He has contributed to newspapers and periodicals throughout the world, lectured widely on various subjects at the Royal Institution (London) and the Smithsonian Institution (Washington) and many other seats of learning. He has also conducted Master Classes in Colleges of Music and on television. The French film

THE WAY OF LIGHT on the life of Yehudi Menuhin has been widely shown throughout Europe as was a similar film on the Bell Telephone Hour in America. The BBC made an hour-long film on his life as a tribute on his sixtieth birthday. He has just completed a series of eight television programmes called MUSIC OF MAN for the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation which will shortly be screened in North America and in Europe early next year. There is a book, published by Methuen, which accompanies the series.

In 1963, wishing to ensure continuance of the great art of violin playing, Yehudi Menuhin founded the Yehudi Menuhin School at Stoke d'Abernon in Surrey, England, a boarding school for young musical talent from the age of six. To celebrate the tenth Anniversary of the School, the pupils played for Her Majesty the Queen Mother at St. James's Palace and in 1973 the Ministry of Education and Science granted the School the same status as that accorded to the Royal Ballet School. The pupils have given concerts throughout Great Britain, in Switzerland, France and on two occasions toured the United States. They have won high awards, scholarships and bursaries on leaving the School at the age of sixteen or seventeen to pass on to music colleges in Britain, Belgium, France, Germany, America and Moscow. In 1976 they played at the British Embassy in Washington at the request of Her Majesty the Queen as part of the American Bicentennial celebrations.

In 1977 he founded LIVE MUSIC NOW in Britain, a charity which gives concert opportunities to young artists while at the same time bringing music beyond the confines of the concert hall to clubs, schools, old age homes, prisons and hospitals. This successful scheme has already expanded into France, Belgium and the Netherlands.

The Asian Youth Music Camp Association and the organisers of the 1979 Asian Youth Music Camp welcome Yehudi Menuhin to the Hong Kong Camp. His concert with the 1979 Asian Youth Orchestra will be a highlight in the history of the Asian Youth Music Camp movement and an encouragement to those taking part in the Camp.

曼紐軒是個一生充滿傳奇的人物。他七歲時就與三藩市樂團演出，其後到巴黎、柏林、紐約及倫敦獻技，足跡遍全球。他的音樂修養日漸增進，演奏小提琴達到爐火純青的地步，而亦以其仁厚之心馳名於世。蘇格蘭人報對他有如下的記載：「對英國音樂界留心的人可觀察到曼紐軒先生的活動包含了愛心、理想及常理，他是自T. S. ELIOT以來美國對英國的最珍貴輸出。」

曼紐軒一九一六年出生於紐約一個俄國家庭，五歲開始學習小提琴。曾師LOUIS PER-SINGER、GEORGES ENESCO及ADOLF BUSCH，及與不少大音樂家合作過，每人都對他有不可磨滅的影響。

一九三三年曼紐軒首次與他的姊妹HEPHZIBAH合作演奏鋼琴與小提琴奏鳴曲，直到現在，他們的合作仍為各地樂季中的高潮；他們在一九三二年的第一次錄音贏得法國國家唱片大賽。

第二次世界大戰期間，曼紐軒為軍隊作過超過五百場演奏，因此獲法國、比利時、西德及希臘各國頒發獎章。其他榮譽包括一九六二年之皇家愛樂協會金章、榮譽音樂家聯會的COBBETT MEDAL、一九七一年哥本哈根之SONNING獎和一九七四年美國絃樂教師協會的藝術家／教師獎。他擁有十一家英國大學（包括牛津及劍橋）的榮譽學位，是愛丁堡和巴芙的榮譽市民，一九六六年受勳為K. B. E.。一九七九年，成為音樂界中獲

BOERSENVEREIN DES DEUTSCHEN BUCHHANDELS 和平獎的第一人。

不少名作曲家會為曼紐軒特別作曲。他對每一類音樂都有興趣，每到一處地方都會去發掘當地的音樂。一九五二年和五四年，他應印度 尼克魯首相邀請為印度饑民救濟金籌款；又於一九六九年在孟買HOMI BHABHA音樂廳開幕時為紀念這位原子科學家作三場演奏。一九七〇年他因以音樂促進國際間諒解和友好之突出貢獻而獲尼克魯和平獎。他與名印度絃琴演奏家RAVI SHANKAR合作在紐約及其他地方演奏，他們的唱片銷售超過百萬張。除對印度音樂有興趣外，他最近向小提琴爵士樂方面進軍，與STEPHANE GRAPPELLI在BBC電視及音樂會中出現，而其唱片亦非常暢銷。

曼紐軒於擔任巴芙節藝術指導達十年後，在一九六九年開始和IAN HUNTER一起領導溫莎節，為此女皇特准二人使用溫莎堡中最大的兩房間。他任瑞士GSTAAD一年一度曼紐軒節的藝術指導達廿四年之久，於一九七〇年他與家人獲瑞士榮譽市民之銜，一九七七年GSTAAD一間供年青絃樂學生深造及表演的國際音樂學院亦以他命名。

在巴芙節中成立的曼紐軒節日樂團與他一起到世界各地表演，他指揮樂團演出過三套莫扎特歌劇，將貝多芬的九首交響曲錄了音，又在電影和電視表演。一

九六九年十一月威爾斯皇子廿一歲生辰時，曼紐軒與樂團受皇子之邀在白金漢宮表演。曼紐軒亦曾指揮多個國際知名的樂團。

一九六九年曼氏任聯合國國際音樂會會長，最近完成三任任期，不過他仍繼續擔任該會國際音樂家互助基金之首任會長。他是多屆西敏城藝行會主席，一九七一年任聖三一音樂學院院長。

他對任何人都真誠關心，能說六國語言。他家人在藝術界中都有很大的成就。

曼紐軒著有很多音樂書籍，他的自傳亦被翻譯成多種語言，他經常為世界各報章雜誌撰寫文章，又在各學院講學及主持大師班。他的一生被法國及美國人拍成電影。六十歲時，BBC亦為其攝製了一部一小時長的電影。他剛為加拿大廣播公司完成了八集的MUSIC OF MAN，將於短期內在北美及歐洲播放，曼紐軒特為此片集寫了一本書。

曼氏於一九六三年在英格蘭SUNNY 郡的STOKE D'ABERNON設立曼紐軒學校教授小指琴，為訓練六歲起音樂天才的學校。今年該校十週年紀念，學生在ST. JAMES 皇宮為皇太后演奏，該校於一九七三年已獲教育及科學部承認為與皇家芭蕾舞學校有同等地位，學生在英國各地瑞士、法國及美國舉行過音樂會，於十六、七歲離校時，都能取得獎學金往英國、比利時、法國、德國、美國及莫斯科的音樂學院深造。一九七六美國建國二百週年紀念時，女皇特邀請該校學生往華盛頓英國大使館演奏。

一九七七年，曼紐軒在英國成立一個LIVE MUSIC NOW 慈善團體，讓年青藝術家到音樂廳外的會所、學校、老人院、監獄及醫院演奏。此項計劃非常成功，現已擴大到法國、比利時及荷蘭等地。

曼紐軒今次到香港是為支持亞洲青年音樂營活動，乃亞洲青年音樂訓練發展史中的一盛事。

GARY KARR was born in Los Angeles and is a seventh-generation bassist in a family of musicians. Acclaimed throughout the world as "a musician who has done more to expand the vocabulary of the double bass than any player alive", Karr has given more than 500 recitals throughout the United States, Canada, Mexico and Europe and has performed as soloist with over 100 orchestras, including the New York Philharmonic, the Chamber Music Society of Lincoln Center, the Chicago Symphony, the Toronto Symphony, the English Chamber Orchestra, the BBC Symphony, the London Philharmonic and the Oslo Philharmonic. Karr's awesome technique has inspired such leading composers as Hans Werner Henze, Gunther Schuller. Alec Wilder and Malcolm Arnold to write especially for him. He has made more than a dozen major recordings. He has been a faculty member of the Juilliard School, the New England Conservatory, the University of Wisconsin, and is now on the faculty of the Dalhousie University in Halifax.

其理加出生於洛杉磯，為其家族內的第七代低音大提琴手。

其理加享譽於世，受到如下的稱頌：「他擴闊了低音大提琴的領域，當今無人能及。」其氏曾於美國、加拿大、墨西哥及歐洲舉行超過五百次獨奏會，亦曾與一百多個樂團作獨奏演出，其中包括紐約愛樂樂團、林肯中心室樂協會、芝加哥交響樂團、多倫多交響樂團、英格蘭室樂團、英國廣播公司交響樂團、倫敦交響樂團及 OSLO 愛樂樂團。

他令人懾服的技巧使到著名作曲家如 HANS WERNER HENZE、GUNTHER SCHULLER、ALEC WILDER 及 MALCOLM ARNOLD 等都為他特別撰寫樂曲。此外，他一共錄有十餘張唱片，並曾任教於茱莉亞音樂學院，新英格蘭音樂學院及威斯康辛大學，現在則任教 HALIFAX DALHOUSIE 大學。

DAVID C. STONE born of a musical family, Scholar of King's College, Cambridge, a leading figure in London Chamber Music with the Martin Quartet, Trio Pro Musica, and as a conductor of the London Mozart Players, international recitalist, acknowledged interpreter of Delius (one of his discs was voted International Record of the Month in Britain), editor of 18th century music and Violin Pedagogy for Oxford University Press, Stone has particularly valued the privilege of working as a Principal of the Menuhin Festival Orchestra. Menuhin has said of him: "I have such a high regard for David Stone and treasure our long association." With achievement in many areas of music, Stone brings to his work in the East a wealth of experience and far-ranging knowledge, tempered by an open mind.

As conductor and consultant, he has this year worked in Australia, Korea and South America: in all, he has performed in more than 30 countries. Instrumental in bringing the British Avon Youth Orchestra to Singapore, Hong Kong and Manila in 1978, and in the 1979 visit of the Hong Kong Youth Chinese and Western Orchestras to Britain and Paris, his concern for Youth and the Performing Arts has taken on wide dimensions. His work for Hong Kong, initiated by the 1977 Report, has a special meaning for him, as one of the most satisfying areas of creativity: the surge of development in both Asian and Western music and its exciting potential — of new works created by natural synthesis, of exchanges of performers, teachers and expertise, of refreshing contact with the roots of Ethnic Music, and of all the joy of shared cultural vitality.

The "Times of India" recently wrote of his performance "... as an example of intense musical communication, it was one of the most thrilling things I have heard." These words well capture Stone's intrinsic quality, the gift of communication.

THOMAS Y.S. WANG was born in Shanghai. Before coming to Hong Kong in 1962, he was a violinist in the Shanghai Symphony Orchestra and a violin tutor in the Shanghai Conservatory.

In 1968, Wang was awarded violin diplomas of Fellow and Licentiate by the Trinity College of Music, London. Later in Switzerland, he was conferred a certificate for the Wolfgang Sohneiderhan's Master Course by the Conservatory of Lucerne.

In 1974, he led the Hong Kong Festival strings to give a chamber orchestra concert in the second Hong Kong Arts Festival in conjunction with the famous Allegri Quartet of London. From 1973 to 1975, he conducted the University Orchestra of the Chinese University of Hong Kong. In September 1978 he joined the Music Administrator's Office as Senior Training Officer and in the same year led a group of students to participate in the Second Asian Youth Music Camp in Singapore.

Wang has also been directing the Diocesan Boys' School Orchestra for sixteen years with an outstanding record at the annual Hong Kong Schools Music Festival.

In August/September this year, Wang was Deputy Director of the tour of the Hong Kong Youth Symphony Orchestra and the Youth Chinese Orchestra in the United Kingdom and France.

TONG LEUNG-TAK was born in a family of musicians in Shanghai. He started playing various Chinese musical instruments as a child. He has played in several Chinese orchestras in Shanghai and Bei Jing, written and scored music for movies and has made recordings.

TONG came to Hong Kong in 1977 and joined the Hong Kong Chinese Orchestra. He was appointed the Training Officer (Chinese Instrumental Music) of the Music Administrator's Office, Hong Kong Government in September 1978. In August/

September this year, he conducted the Hong Kong Youth Chinese Orchestra during its successful concert tour of the United Kingdom and France.

JOHN CHENG was educated in Macau. He received his music training in the United States and the United Kingdom, CHENG joined the Music Section of the Hong Kong Education Department in 1962. He led the Hong Kong delegation to the First Asian Youth Music Camp in the Philippines in 1977. In October of the same year, he joined the Music Administrator's Office as Training Officer for wind music. He is now the conductor of the Hong Kong Youth Symphonic Band.

KIM NAM-YUN, American-trained Korean violinist, started an early music career by winning many contests in Korea. At eighteen, she was sent for further studies at the Juilliard School of Music under Ivan Galamian. A consistent scholar, she continued to win many other awards including the Merriweather Post Competition in 1969 in Washinton, D.C., the Tchaikowsky Concerto Competition in Juilliard; and the Tibor Varga International Violin Competition in Switzerland in 1974. She has made various appearances in recitals, chamber music concerts since 1967 in New York, Switzerland, West Germany and Korea.

WOON WEN KIN of Malaysia earned his violin training and musical experience as trombone player and conductor in London. He participated extensively in concerts and festivals, and was selected to represent the British Student Youth Symphony Orchestra in a UNESCO-sponsored tour of Austria in 1965 and of Paris in 1967. He also recorded for the BBC in London. Upon his return to Malaysia in 1968, he founded the Penang Philharmonic Society of which he is the present Vice-President and Director. He is also the conductor of the Penang Chung Hwa Brass Band. He still teaches violin and other instruments in Penang. He was also a Conductor and Assistant Director of the First and Second Malaysia National Music Camp.

SUTINSRINARONG (Thailand) plays the viola and holds a degree in teaching from the Chulalongkorn University. He was selected to represent Thailand at the Chamber Music Academy in Switzerland in the summer of 1972. He is at present teaching music at the Kasetsart University and conducts a group of young musicians. Under his competent and enthusiastic leadership, the group recently appeared on television to celebrate the birthday of the Queen of Thailand. Srinarong is most interested in the education of the young and in the formation of youth orchestra.

NA DUK SUNG, Korean cellist, finished his early music studies in Korea. He then proceeded to study further at the Musiklochschole in Cologne in 1972 as a scholar of Prof. Siegfried Palm. His noteworthy appearances as soloist has been with the National Symphony, the Seoul Philharmonic and the Taipei Symphony. He also has made a number of recitals in Seoul, in Cologne, in Salzburg, and participant of the World Symphony Orchestra held in New York and Washington, D.C. in 1971. At present, he is Asst. Professor of the Music Department of Kyung Hee University in Seoul, Korea.

GABOR REEVES, Hungarian clarinetist who migrated to 人物介紹

Australia, has filled the position of principal clarinet and lecturer on clarinet for several orchestras and music schools in Australia. Besides performances, he has conducted masterclasses in clarinet and has been active with the music camps movement in Australia.

GEOFF BAILEY is Lecturer in Brass at the N.S.W. Conservatorium of Music in Sydney. Before his appointment for this teaching stint, he worked for many years as a professional trombonist in all fields of performance in music symphonic, grand opera, music-comedy and cabaret. His intense interest in the development of music appreciation in school made him take the position of tutor for lower brass in the National Music Camp of Australia.

ROBERT E. JOHNSON is currently the principal French Horn player in the Singapore Symphony Orchestra. He studied the Horn with Michael Hatfield of the Cincinnati Symphony Orchestra and later with the great Philip Farkas of the Chicago Symphony. In the recent past he has been associated with the Aspen Music Festival in Colorado U.S.A., performing in the Festival, Chamber, Opera and Philharmonic orchestras. He was also involved in the Aspen Music Festival Conference on Contemporary Music. Early this year he served as Horn Clinician for the Cultural Center of the Philippines and was guest soloist with the Metro-Manila Symphony Orchestra. In Singapore besides his full time work in the S.S.O. he serves as a Music lecturer for the University of Singapore.

DICK SMITH, timpanist of the South Australian Symphony Orchestra has played solo on the xylophone, vibraphone, and marimba. He is teacher-lecturer for tympani and percussions at the University of Adelaide, Department of Further Education, and the college of advanced education. He plays and teaches the complete percussion and tympani.

DAVID HARMON LEWIS: Harmon Lewis is a graduate in Organ from Millsaps College, Jackson, Mississippi, and holds a Masters degree in music from Indiana University. He is currently on the faculty of Dalhousie University as instructor in Organ and Harpsichord. As a member of the Karr-Lewis Duo, Harmon Lewis is an exponent of the almost forgotten art of accompaniments improvised directly from a figured bass. For the past summers he has been, with Gary Karr, a faculty member of the Shawnigan Lake Summer School of the Arts on Vancouver Island.

汪西三在上海出生，曾任上海交響樂團小提琴演奏家及上海音樂學院小提琴教授。一九六二年來港定居。一九六八年獲英國倫敦聖三一音樂學院小提琴演奏及教學院士文憑，後在瑞士盧桑音樂學院考獲舒納德亨（WO—LFGANG SOHNEIDERHAN）碩士課程文憑。

一九七四年領導第二屆香港藝術節弦樂隊與英國著名的雅萊格利四重奏合作演出。一九七三至七五年指揮中文大學管弦樂隊

SUTIN SRINARONG

(泰國) 乃中提琴演奏家，在 CHULALONGKORN 大學獲教育學位。一九七二年夏天，他獲選代表泰國參加瑞士之室樂學院。他現時任教於 KASETSART 大學，指揮一個青年音樂小組，在他的熱心領導下，該小組最近為祝泰國皇后生辰在電視表演。他對青年教育及組織青年樂團有濃厚興趣。

ROBERT E. JOHN-SON (新加坡) 現任新加坡交響樂團首席法國號手。師承辛辛納第交響樂團之 MICHAEL HATFIELD，後隨芝加哥交響樂團 PHILIP FARKAS

曾在美國科羅拉多音樂節樂團演出，並參加 ASPEN 音樂節之現代音樂研討會。本年初在菲律賓文化中心任圓號導師及為馬尼拉交響樂團擔任圓號獨奏。除在新加坡交響樂團全職工作外，亦為新加坡大學之音樂講師。

WOON WEN KIN (馬來西亞) 於倫敦接受小提琴訓練，有指揮經驗，又曾擔任伸縮號之演奏。他多次參加音樂會及音樂節，並曾獲選由聯合國贊助的英國學生青年交響樂團團員於六五年訪奧大利及六七年訪巴黎演出。此外，尚曾於倫敦為英國廣播公司作海外錄音。

一九六八年，他返回馬來西亞，成立了檳城愛樂協會，現任該會副主席及總監。他又是檳城中華管樂團之指揮。現時仍在檳城教授小提琴及其他樂器。除此，他又曾任第一、二屆馬來西亞國家音樂營之指揮及副總監。
