TERCENTENARY of the PASSION PLAY

Oberammergau and the British Empire

AN INVITATION

(Extracts from a letter to the Press)

SIR :—

The presentation of the Passion Play at Oberammergau in 1930 made so deep an impression on the Executive Secretary of the National Council of Education of Canada that he was moved by a great desire that when next it was presented the greatest possible number of teachers and students from Canada might share his experience. This desire has gradually taken a wider range. Now, through the National Council of Education of Canada (and the Foreign Students Bureau at Berlin) the Municipality of Oberammergau has invited two thousand Educationists, Teachers and Students (including senior boys and girls of the Secondary schools and Teachers in Training) of the British Empire to attend a special performance of the Passion Play on August 10th, and, moreover, to be the guests of the villagers in their homes. The original invitation was for 5,000, the capacity of the new Auditorium, but at the suggestion of the National Council of Education it is now limited to the number mentioned.

The National Council of Education of Canada which, in conjunction with a special London Committee is undertaking the arrangements for this pilgrimage, proposes to organise a short Conference on "The Teaching of Christ and International Goodwill." The Conference will be preceded by a simple service in the great Auditorium, in which the Passion Play Orchestra and Choir will take part. The hope is that the urgent need of peace and goodwill throughout the world may be realised afresh in the wonderful atmosphere of Oberammergau and in the light of the great memories of Calvary and Easter.

Some words written by the Archbishop of Canterbury in a letter to the Executive Secretary may here be quoted:—"I have been greatly moved by the generous and gracious invitation of the people of Oberammergau which you are now authorised to extend to the teachers and students of the Empire. I cannot doubt that those to whom the invitation is addressed will be eager, so far as they can, to accept it. I hope that a great gathering may assemble at Oberammergau to receive for themselves the deep impression which the Passion Play cannot fail to give and with its inspiration to hasten the time when, forgetting the misunderstandings of the past, the nations may live together in mutual understanding and goodwill."

Form of Service to be used on August 9th

Hymn.

Tune : St. Anne, by W. Croft.

O God our help in ages past,
Our hope for years to come,
Our shelter from the stormy blast,
And our eternal home.

Under the shadow of Thy throne,
Thy saints have dwelt secure ;
Sufficient is Thine arm alone,
And our defence is sure.

Before the hills in order stood,
Or earth received her frame,
From everlasting Thou art God,
To endless years the same.

A thousand ages in Thy sight
Are like an evening gone,
Short as the watch that ends the night
Before the rising sun.

Time, like an ever rolling stream
Bears all its sons away ;
They fly forgotten as a dream
Dies at the opening day.

O God our help in ages past,
Our hope for years to come,
Be Thou our guard while troubles last,
And our eternal home. Amen.

I. WATTS, 1674-1748.

Welcome—

Short Programme of Music

by the PASSION PLAY CHOIR AND ORCHESTRA including

"God's Tender Mercy." By G. F. HANDEL, 1685-1759.

Solo : God's tender mercy knows no bounds,
His truth shall ne'er decay ;
Then let the willing nations round
Their grateful tribute pay.

Chorus : Ye boundless realms of joy,
Exalt your Maker's fame ;
His praise your song employ,
Above the starry frame.

Prayers

Let us pray for the Peace of the World.

Almighty God, from whom all thoughts of truth and peace proceed ; kindle, we pray Thee, in the hearts of all men the true love of peace ; and guide with Thy pure and peaceable wisdom those that take counsel for the nations of the earth ; that in tranquillity Thy kingdom may go forward, till the earth is filled with the knowledge of Thy love ; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Let us pray for Industrial Prosperity in all countries.

O God our Father, who through Thy Son Jesus Christ, has consecrated labour to the welfare of mankind, prosper, we pray Thee, the industries of all lands ; bless all those who are engaged therein ; shield them in all dangers and temptations, and grant that, receiving the due fruits of their labours, they may praise Thee by living according to Thy will ; through the same Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Let us pray for the Universities and Schools.

Bless, O Lord, the work of all Universities, Colleges and Schools, that they who serve Thee therein, as teachers or learners, may set Thy holy will alway before them, and be led to the knowledge of Thy truth ; that both Church and Commonwealth may be bettered by their studies and they themselves become true servants of Thy kingdom ; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Let us pray for the spread of the Gospel of Christ.

O God, who hast made of one blood all nations of men for to dwell on the face of the earth, and didst send Thy blessed Son Jesus Christ to preach peace to them that are afar off and to them that are nigh ; grant that all the peoples of the world may feel after Thee and find Thee ; and hasten, O Lord, the fulfilment of Thy promise to pour out Thy spirit upon all flesh ; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Our Father, which art in Heaven, hallowed be Thy name, Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive them that trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, the power and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

The Grace of our Lord Jesus Christ ; the love of God and the fellowship of the Holy Ghost be with us evermore. Amen.

Hymn.

Tune : Old 124th. Genevan Psalter.

Turn back, O man, forswear thy foolish ways ;
Old now is earth, and none may count her days,
Yet thou, her child, whose head is crowned with flame,
Still wilt not hear thine inner God proclaim,
" Turn back, O man, forswear thy foolish ways."

Earth might be fair and all men glad and wise,
Age after age their tragic empire rise,
Built while they dream, and in that dreaming weep :
Would man but wake from out his haunted sleep,
Earth might be fair and all men glad and wise.

Earth shall be fair, and all her people one :
Nor till that hour shall God's whole will be done.
Now, even now, once more from earth to sky,
Peals forth in joy man's old undaunted cry—
" Earth shall be fair, and all her folk be one."

CLIFFORD BAX, 1896.

Address

by the REV. G. H. WOOLLEY, V.C., M.C., M.A.

Chaplain of Harrow School.

Hymn.

Tune : Rockingham. E. Miller.

When I survey the wondrous Cross,
On which the Prince of Glory died ;
My richest gain I count but loss,
And pour contempt on all my pride.

Forbid it, Lord, that I should boast,
Save in the death of Christ my God ;
All the vain things that charm me most ;
I sacrifice them to His blood.

See from His head, His hands, His feet,
Sorrow and Love flow mingled down ;
Did e'er such love and sorrow meet,
Or thorns compose so rich a crown ?

His dying crimson like a robe,
Spreads o'er His body on the tree,
Then am I dead to all the globe,
And all the globe is dead to me.

To Christ who won for sinners grace
By bitter grief and anguish sore,
Be praise from all the ransomed race
For ever and for evermore.

Were the whole realm of nature mine,
That were an offering far too small :
Love so amazing, so Divine,
Demands my soul, my life, my all. Amen.

I. WATTS, 1674-1748.

A Prayer of St. Chrysostom

Almighty God who hast given us grace at this time with one accord to make our common supplications unto Thee, and dost promise that when two or three are gathered together in Thy name Thou wilt grant their requests ; fulfil now, O Lord, the desires and petitions of Thy people as may be most expedient for them, granting us in this life knowledge of Thy truth and in the world to come life everlasting.

Amen.

The Blessing

The peace of God which passeth all understanding, keep your hearts and minds in the knowledge and love of God and of His Son Jesus Christ our Lord, and the Blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son and the Holy Ghost be amongst you and remain with you always. Amen.

"THE TEACHING OF CHRIST and INTERNATIONAL GOODWILL"

Conference to be held in Munich.

Chairman : SIR JAMES IRVINE.

Speakers : PROFESSOR DAVID MORRISON, M.A.

REV. G. H. WOOLLEY, V.C., M.C., M.A.

PROFESSOR J. H. BAXTER, D.D., D.LITT., F.S.A.

AUGUST 11th.

Introduction: MAJOR F. J. NEY, M.C., Executive Secretary of the National Council of Education of Canada.

Papers to be read—

1. On what Christian principles does modern Internationalism regard itself as based?
2. How far are these justified by New Testament teaching?

AUGUST 12th.

1. What validity have these conclusions as judgments of value?
2. What strict practical relevance and applicability have these principles to actual modern international conditions?

The difficulties in the way.

SUMMARY: The Chairman.

The Conference will open and close with the singing of a Hymn.

To open the Conference.

Tune : Mannheim.

Lead us, Heavenly Father, lead us
O'er the world's tempestuous sea,
Guard us, guide us, keep us, feed us,
For we have no help but Thee.
Yet possessing every blessing,
If our God our Father be.

Saviour, breathe forgiveness o'er us ;
All our weakness Thou dost know,
Thou didst tread this earth before us,
Thou didst feel its keenest woe ;
Lone and dreary, faint and weary,
Through the desert Thou didst go.

Spirit of our God descending,
Fill our hearts with heavenly joy,
Love with every passion blending,
Pleasure that can never cloy :
Thus provided, pardoned, guided,
Nothing can our peace destroy. Amen.

J. EDMESTON.

Hymn to end the Conference.

Tune : Nun Danket.

Now thank we all our God
With hearts and hands and voices,
Who wondrous things hath done,
In whom His world rejoices ;
Who from our mother's arms
Hath blessed us on our way,
With countless gifts of love,
And still is ours to-day.

O may this bounteous God
Through all our life be near us,
With ever-joyful hearts
And blessed peace to cheer us,
And keep us in his grace
And guide us when perplexed,
And free us from all ills
In this world and the next.

All praise and thanks to God
The Father now be given ;
The Son, and Him who reigns,
With them in highest heaven,
The one eternal God,
Whom earth and heaven adore ;
For thus it was, is now,
And shall be evermore. Amen.

TERCENTENARY OF THE PASSION PLAY

Oberammergau and the British Empire

AN INVITATION

(Reprinted from the Press)

SIR :—

The presentation of the Passion Play at Oberammergau in 1930 made so deep an impression on the Executive Secretary of the National Council of Education of Canada that he was moved by a great desire that when next it was presented the greatest possible number of teachers and students from Canada might share his experience. This desire has gradually taken a wider range. Now, through the National Council of Education of Canada (and the Foreign Students Bureau at Berlin) the Municipality of Oberammergau has invited two thousand Educationists, Teachers and Students (including senior boys and girls of the Secondary schools and Teachers in Training) of the British Empire to attend a special performance of the Passion Play on August 10th, and, moreover, to be the guests of the villagers in their homes. The original invitation was for 5,000, the capacity of the new Auditorium, but at the suggestion of the National Council of Education it is now limited to the number mentioned.

The unique generosity and significance at the present time of this invitation from the people of Oberammergau will be recognised by all, and those who desire to avail themselves of it are asked to apply at once through their respective organisations or Schools. The number of places reserved for students is limited.

It may be added that the German Railways have offered to each registered member of the company exceptional facilities together with greatly reduced rates. The French Authorities have agreed to collaborate in the arrangements in so far as the French part of the journey to and from Oberammergau is concerned and have accorded the most generous of concessions. It is hoped that the British Railways will co-operate in similar manner. Mr. E. W. Beatty, Chancellor of McGill University and President of the Canadian Pacific Railway will play the part of host to a large number of Oberammergau's guests for the crossing from Southampton to Cherbourg on the "Empress of Britain" on July 28th while the Norddeutscher Lloyd has agreed to the chartering of the S.S. "Stuttgart" for a special crossing from Dover to Bremen on August 5th upon most reasonable conditions. The National Council of Education of Canada which, in conjunction with a special London Committee is undertaking the arrangements for this pilgrimage, proposes to organise a short Conference on "The Teaching of Christ and International Goodwill." The Conference will be preceded by a simple service in the great Auditorium, in which the Passion Play Orchestra and Choir will take part. The hope is that the urgent need of peace and goodwill throughout the world may be realised afresh in the wonderful atmosphere of Oberammergau and in the light of the great memories of Calvary and Easter.

Some words written by the Archbishop of Canterbury in a letter to the Executive Secretary may here be quoted :—"I have been greatly moved by the generous and gracious invitation of the people of Oberammergau which you are now authorised to extend to the teachers and students of the Empire. I cannot doubt that those to whom the invitation is addressed will be eager, so far as they can, to accept it. I hope that a great gathering may assemble at Oberammergau to receive for themselves the deep impression which the Passion Play cannot fail to give and with its inspiration to hasten the time when, forgetting the misunderstandings of the past, the nations may live together in mutual understanding and goodwill."

The return journey from Munich will be made by special train to Paris (via Strasbourg) and thence to Boulogne or individually by any route of the Southern Railway and London and North Eastern Railway.

The estimated cost for transportation only by one of these routes varies from £4 15s. to £6 10s. (Second Class).

A Committee consisting of the representatives of the different Transportation Companies and Travel Agencies concerned is at present engaged in the preparation of a memorandum setting forth the routes and special facilities available, together with definite costs. This, when printed, will be sent to all applicants.

At the time of going to Press, certain information is necessary before definite estimates of travel costs can be given. These latter will be sent to all applicants at the earliest possible moment. In the meantime, everything is being done to reduce the cost of transportation to and from Oberammergau to the utmost, and to this end the official co-operation of Government and transportation authorities is being secured.

The invitation, itself, it should be noted includes :—

- (a) A seat at a special performance of the Passion Play as the guests of the Municipality of Oberammergau.
- (b) Hospitality in the homes of the villagers from the afternoon of August 9th to the evening of August 10th.
- (c) Participation in the special (broadcast) Service in the Passion Play Auditorium at 8.30 p.m. on August 9th in which the Passion Play Choir and Orchestra will participate.
- (d) Attendance at the Conference in Munich on "The Teaching of Christ and International Goodwill."
- (e) Participation in the official programme to be arranged for Bremen, Berlin, Munich and Paris.

As previously stated, it is expected that many of those applying for invitations will make their own plans for the journey to and from Oberammergau. To all accepted members a formal invitation will be sent and this card (printed in English and German) will serve for identity purposes throughout. For those travelling independently it must be produced when applying for the special facilities (including a reduction of 60% for group or individual purposes) accorded by the German Railways which are available only through the offices of their official agent, Mr. C. J. Duncker, 66/68, Haymarket, London, S.W.1, or through the offices of Messrs. Thos. Cook & Son, and Messrs. Dean & Dawson, Ltd., the Directors of which have kindly placed the services of their international organizations at the disposal of the National Council of Education of Canada.

The formal itineraries, Nos. 1, 2 and 3, are drawn for School and other groups desiring to travel under exceptional conditions and to follow an organized programme.

The cost in each case, as at present estimated, is from £12 to £15. A definite amount will be fixed as soon as the necessary arrangements are completed.

In all cases a Registration Fee of 5s. will be charged to cover organisation and other expenses. Should any balance remain unspent it will be devoted to the Council's annual Summer School for Students in England to which it is proposed to invite a certain number of German, French and Italian girls during the Summer of 1935.

Dear Madam,

I write to acknowledge receipt of your letter of January 25th, but I am afraid I can give you no information about the 25th Anniversary Record of the Overseas Education League.

Mr. Heywood, who was then Secretary of the League, left some time ago, and as far as I have been able to ascertain the Record in question was never published.

I will however bring the matter to Major Ney's notice when he returns to this country from Canada - which will not be for some weeks.

Yours faithfully,

H. F. Hunt.
