Champagnerlied

SOLO, MR. G. J. JOHNSON

Royal Victorian Liedertafel

Pour the libation in fizzing champagne,
Leaping in silvery, swirling cascades ;
Pour the libation in fizzing champagne,
Gushing in tremulous, prancing, proud courses,
Flowing in boiling and high foaming ardours,
Like to the olden-time streamlets and sources
Deeply in Ida's dun thickets concealed.

Mould there thy pearl drops from silvery foam ;
Seething they climb from their specular home.

Mould there thy pearl drops from silvery foam.
There in the sharp infundibular goblets,
Sparkling and glistening light bubbling fountains,
Pour from the mouth of the broken sealed magnum
Swaying and dancing on odorous pinions.

Swaying and sinking in aureate room,
Clink now the glasses with resonant swing ;
Rolling and swelling like zephyrs in spring time.
There, in the fragrant recesses, in the delicate depths of the vessel

Dance frolicsome spirits, the lighthearted genii of champagne ;
Backward and forward enlacing, departing,
Glistening, vanishing, lost in the crystal vase ;
Brief as the day of youth's gay effervescence.

Latest Design.

GLEN & CO., 272 Collins St., Melbourne, desire particularly to draw the attention of the Public to the

Albert Fahr Pianos

Made at ZEITZ, GERMANY.

They are manufactured of the very finest material by the best workmen, and therefore can be strongly recommended for durability.

Special attention is given to the construction of the sounding board, the result being that a tone is produced which is unsurpassed by any Piano that comes to the State.

Unlike other medium Pianos the tone improves as the Piano is used, being, after two or three years' wear, of a superb, mellow quality.

After twenty years' experience of this make in Victoria we can truly say that no Piano is more suitable for family or school use.

Prices for Cash: £48, £50, £55, £60, and £70.

Carol—

Child Divine

Dr. Bridge

Choir of Boys and Royal Victorian Liedertafel

List! afar! what Angel voices
Fall upon the winter night!
Earth amid the sound rejoices:
Broods of evil speed their flight.
List, for aye sweet words of gladness
Through the generations roll,
Calming every mourner's sadness,
"Christ is born to save thy soul,"
Child Divine, what pow'rs are round Thee!
Health to man Thy presence brings:
Age by age have myriads found Thee,
Lord of lords and King of kings!

Born to heal what sin hath broken,
Born, its captives to release,
Born, by prophet lips forespoken,
Mighty God and Prince of Peace.
When the passions rage in blindness,
Thou their stormy waves canst still,
Turning by Thy spell of kindness
Hate and malice to good will.
Child Divine, who'er hath known Thee,
Hails the joy Thy presence brings,
Thine through life, in death we own Thee
Lord of lords and King of kings!

Sing, ye hosts, triumphant thronging
Round the lamb enthroned in light;
Sing, O man, the hymn prolonging,
Through thy toils of hourly fight.
Sing what grace, what nameless glory,
Stoop'd to rescue sons of earth,
Grateful spread the wondrous story,
Hail the Incarnate Saviour's birth,
Child Divine, all hearts that know Thee
Know the strength Thy presence brings,
Know what debt of love we owe Thee,
Lord of lords and King of kings!

Gondolier's Serenade

Schubert

Royal Victorian Liedertafel

WHILE moon and stars above us
Their airy dance renew,
Say, why should sadness move us,
Or earth-born care pursue?

Behold! the soft beams play, love,
Come in my bark away, love,
And glide, from bondage free,
Across the dark blue sea.

Now midnight's boding number
From good Saint Mark's I hear,
And all are hushed in slumber,
Except thy Gondolier.

- (a) Sleep, Holy Babe Rev. J. B. Dykes, M.A.

- (b) The Manger Throne C. Steggall

Choir of Boys and Royal Victorian Liedertafel

- (a) SLEEP, holy Babe, upon Thy Mother's breast,
Great Lord of earth and sea and sky,
How sweet it is to see Thee lie
In such a place of rest.

Sleep, holy Babe; Thine Angels watch around,
All bending low with folded wings,
Before the Incarnate King of kings,
In reverent awe profound.

Sleep, holy Babe, ah, take Thy brief repose;
Too quickly will Thy slumbers break,
And Thou to lengthened pains awake,
That Death alone shall close.

(b) Like silver lamps in a distant shrine
 The stars are sparkling bright;
 The bells of the city of God ring out,
 For the Son of Mary was born to-night;
 The gloom is past, and the morn at last
 Is coming with orient light.

Never fell melodies half so sweet
 As those which are filling the skies;
 And never a palace shone half so fair
 As the manger bed where our Saviour lies;
 No night in the year is half so dear
 As this which has ended our sighs.

Now a new power has come on earth,
 A match for the armies of Hell;
 A Child is born who shall conquer the foe,
 And all the spirits of wickedness quell;
 For Mary's Son is the Mighty One
 Whom the prophets of God foretell.

The stars of heaven still shine as at first
 They gleamed on this wonderful night
 The bells of the city of God peal out,
 And the Angels' song still rings in the height;
 And love still turns where the Godhead burns,
 Hid in Flesh from fleshly sight.

Faith sees no longer the stable floor,
 The pavement of sapphire is there;
 The clear light of Heaven streams out to the world,
 And Angels of God are crowding the air;
 And Heaven and earth, through the spotless birth,
 Are at peace on this night so fair.

- (a) Boot, saddle, to horse, and away!
 Rescue my castle before the hot day
 Brightens to blue from its silver grey,
 Boot, saddle, to horse, and away!
- Ride past the suburbs, asleep as you'd say,
 Many's the friend there will listen and pray
 God's luck to the gallants that strike up the lay,
 Boot, saddle, to horse, and away!

You really must not NEGLECT YOUR SKIN and HAIR.

A GOOD HEAD OF HAIR creates a Fascination all its own. It is the theme of Bards and the song of Poets. It gives charm and Beauty to the most common-place profile. Who? My wife Gertrude, that, honest and gay, Laughs when you talk of surrendering. Nay!
I've better counsellors, what counsel they?

- (b) KING CHARLES! and who'll do him right now?
King Charles! and who's ripe for the fight now?
Give a rouse,
Here's in Hell's despite now—

King Charles.

Who raised me the house that sank once?
Who helped me to gold I spent since?
Who found me in wine you drank once?

King Charles.

For whom used my boy George quaff else
By the old fool's side that begot him?
For whom did he cheer and quaff else
While Nell's damn'd troopers shot him?

King Charles.

- (c) KENTISH SIR BYNG stood for his king,
Bidding the crop-headed Parliament swing,
And pressing a troop, unable to stoop,
And see the rogues flourish and honest men droop,
Marched them along, fifty score strong,
Great-hearted gentlemen singing this song.

God for King Charles! Pym and such carles
To the devil that prompts their treasonous parles!
Cavaliers up! lips from the cup!
Hands from the pastry, nor bite take or sup,
Till your marching along, fifty score strong,
Great-hearted gentlemen singing this song.

Hampden to hell, and his obsequies knell,
Serve Hazelrig Fiennes and young Harry as well.
England good cheer. Rupert is near,
Kentish and loyalists keep we not here.

Soldiers' Chorus (Faust)

Gounod

Royal Victorian Liedertafel

GLORY and love to the men of old,
Their sons may copy their virtues bold;
Courage in heart and sword in hand,
Ready to fight or ready to die for Fatherland.
Who needs biddidg to dare by a trumpet blown?
Who lacks pity to spare when the field is won?
Who would fly from a foe if alone, or last,
And toast he was true, as cowards might do when peril is past?

Now to home again we come, the long and fiery strife of battle over;

Rest is pleasant after toil as hard as ours beneath a stranger sun,

Many a maiden fair is waiting here to greet her truant
soldier lover,

And many a heart will fail, and brow grow pale, to hear the tale of cruel peril he has run.

(a) Good King Wenceslas Traditional

(b) The Wassail Song Traditional

Royal Victorian Liedertafel

(a) Good King Wenceslas look'd out,
On the feast of Stephen,
When the snow lay round about,
Deep, and crisp, and even.

Brightly shone the moon that night,
Though the frost was cruel,
When a poor man came in sight,
Gath'ring winter fuel.

Tenor Solo. "Hither, page, and stand by me,
If thou know'st it, telling,
Yonder peasant, who is he?
Where and what his dwelling?"

Treble Solo. "Sire, he lives a good league hence
Underneath the mountain;
Right against the forest fence,
By St. Agnes' fountain."

Tenor Solo. "Bring me flesh, and bring me wine,
Bring me pine-logs hither;
Thou and I will see him dine,
When we bear them thither."

Chorus. Page and monarch forth they went,
Forth they went together;
Through the rude wind's wild lament
And the bitter weather.

Treble Solo. "Sire, the night is darker now,
And the wind blows stronger;
Fails my heart, I know not how,
I can go no longer."

Tenor Solo. "Mark my footsteps, my good page
Tread thou in them boldly;
Thou shalt find the winter's rage
Freeze thy blood less coldly."

Chorus. In his master's steps he trod,
Where the snow lay dinted;
Heat was in the very sod
Which the saint had printed.

Therefore, Christian men, be sure,
Wealth or rank possessing,
Ye who now will bless the poor,
Shall yourselves find blessing.

(b) HERE we come a wassailing
Among the leaves so green,
Here we come a wandering,
So fair to be seen.

Chorus. Love and joy come to you,
And to your wassail too;
And God bless you, and send you a Happy New Year.
And God send you a Happy New Year.

Our wassail-cup is made
Of the rosemary tree,
And so is your beer
Of the best barley.

Love and joy, etc.

Call up the butler of this house,
Put on his golden ring;
Let him bring us a glass of beer,
And the better we shall sing.

Love and joy, etc.

Bring us out a table,
And spread it with a cloth;
Bring us out a mouldy cheese,
And some of your Christmas loaf

Love and joy, etc.

Christmas Appeal.

Following the worthy custom of the past the Members are invited to contribute to two very deserving objects, the

Doctor Campbell Tobacco Fund,

and the Children's Hospital.

For those who are far on the journey of life, a little solace in the way of a supply of the fragrant weed must help to make cheerful their sad lot, and to the little children who are now on beds of suffering and pain brighten their sad hours by the bestowal of some little gift.

The Committee feels sure the same generous response will be made this evening, and convey to you the most cordial wishes for a

HAPPY CHRISTMAS AND A GLAD NEW YEAR.
